

LOW-DOWN POLITICS SAYS MAYOR WEAVER

Council's Manifest Intention to Put Chief Wyman Out of Office Scathingly Condemned.

MEANING OF A PENDING ORDINANCE

For the purpose of effecting the removal of John W. Wyman from the office of chief of police, four members of the city council, Bullock, Croxall, Moon and Johnston, at the adjourned meeting held last evening, by their vote in the affirmative had an ordinance, providing for a chief of police, seven patrolmen and a night watchman, placed on its first reading. President Horwell, who presided, had nothing to say regarding the ordinance. Mr. Smith raised strenuous objections.

The first ordinance drafted for the purpose of creating and classifying the offices incident to the police department, it will be remembered, was introduced several weeks ago and was placed on its first reading. It was expected that the ordinance would come up at the regular meeting of council

A HUNTER FOUGHT BY AN ANGRY CROW

The Bird Thought the Man Poached On His Preserves and Scratched and Bit.

SERIOUS WOUND GIVEN

For several weeks past there has been a rivalry between two parties of ground hog hunters in Chester. The men are employees of the tin mill and for days have been spending all their spare time at the sport. They have learned all the tricks known to modern hunters, and have put many of them into execution, with the result that the ground hog has become very scarce in that locality.

Charles Melott and a party left the town on Monday for a cleaning up, and while going through a corn field south of the city succeeded in getting a shot at an animal which he at first thought was a bear, but upon going to the spot after he had killed it found that he had bagged a ground hog weighing 40 pounds. The most peculiar part of the find was the fact that the animal was entirely white. The oldest hunters of the community had never before seen the like, and feeling sure he had captured a freak, Melott returned to town and put his find on exhibition.

The success which attended Melott and his friends made the other party jealous, and B. I. Hilliard, Willard Mercer and Lon Shaffer went to the country yesterday and did not return until this morning. About four miles southeast of Chester the dogs ran a ground hog into a hollow tree, and some difficulty was experienced in getting him out. It was found that a hole had been drilled away about 20 feet from the ground, and Hilliard, without thinking of any danger, climbed to it and commenced the task of routing the ground hog. The animal had crawled to the spot and was close to the hole when Hilliard appeared. He was able to use but one hand, and the animal fought desperately. While engaged with the beast a crow, which had been perched high up in the tree, swooped down on the tin worker and he was attacked on the other side. Hilliard was bitten and scratched in a terrible manner by the infuriated bird, and is now suffering from a nasty bite on one of his fingers. He abandoned the fight and slid to the ground, more dead than alive. The ground hog was shot later and when weighed the men claimed tipped the scales at 60 pounds.

Hilliard's hand is terribly swollen, and it is feared blood poisoning may result.

BETTER STREETS FOR THE COUNTY SEAT

Important Paving Projects Which Are Likely to Be Undertaken Soon.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—Several street paving projects are being considered by Lisbon property owners, which, if carried out, will be a great improvement to the city. The principal one of these is the paving of North Market street from the point where the paving ends a short distance north of the square to the fair grounds, and it is said that a petition to this end has received the required number of signatures of property owners who are willing to pave at their own expense.

A short section of street running north from the northeast corner of the square one block to Chestnut street on which the city hall will be located will also probably be paved. The paving of South Market street from the Hasbrouck hotel to the P. L. & W. railroad track is also contemplated.

TRADES COUNCIL FIGHTS GAS STEAL

Legislative Committee Will Aid the City Council to Enforce Ordinance.

BLACKSMITHS IN TROUBLE

Another formidable opponent has just been enlisted to fight the gas corporation, and the city council will have the support and endorsement of the East Liverpool central labor union, representing over 4,000 good citizens, in its effort to enforce the ordinance restricting the price of gas.

The matter was discussed by the trades council at its last meeting, and was at that time placed in the hands of the legislative committee with authority to proceed with the fight as best suited. A careful inquiry has been made by the committee during the past week, and a report was made at the meeting last night. It is the opinion of the committee that the gas company proposes to resist the effort to keep the price of gas within reason, and that the city council ought to be prepared to take the question to the courts for a decision as to the constitutionality of the state law which gave it the authority for the enactment of the ordinance. The committee made arrangements to attend the meeting of the city council this evening, at which time an exchange of ideas will be had, and other details arranged whereby an organized effort can be made to prevent the robbery about to be perpetrated by the gas combination.

The attendance was not large at the meeting of the central body last evening but the interest did not lag for a moment. J. Brooks was the only new candidate seated last night, and he hailed from the teamsters.

An important communication was received from the headquarters office of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths at Moline, Ill. It dealt with the strike now on at the factory of the McDole Hammer company at Norwich, N. Y., in which more than the usual interest has been taken by unionists all over the country. The circular asked that the council have a committee appointed to call upon the local retailers and ascertain whether or not any of the product of the non-union firm is being handled in this city. If so, the committee was to request the retailer to discontinue its sale until such time as the Norwich firm signed the scale and squared itself with the union. The request was complied with and a committee consisting of Fred Pennington, S. A. Shipley and George Eisenhuth was appointed to perform the work.

A report was forthcoming from a number of other locals with reference to the views of the members on the question of whether or not there was to be a labor day parade this year. Those reporting were unanimous in favor of the feature, and it now looks as though the labor day committee would heed the overwhelming sentiment for a parade.

Delegate Wright, from the painters' union, reported that Samuel Steele, a member of local union No. 9, persisted in allowing a non-union firm to proceed with the painting of his house. Steele had been approached by the business agent of the painters and had ignored his appeals. The local to which Steele belongs will be

COUNCIL ACTS ON ORDINANCES

The Tax Levy Amended and Placed Upon Its Second Reading.

CITY ENGINEER'S OFFICE

Created By a New Measure And the Engineer's Salary Fixed at $2,000 Though He Offered to Do the Work And Pay His Help for Less.

Council acted upon nothing but ordinances at the adjourned meeting last evening. It had been made plain to the members that the ordinance designating the tax levy should be passed and submitted to the county auditor, and as it was desired to give the city officials and employees their salaries three meetings were arranged for. The last of them will be held this evening.

The ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles was introduced and placed on its third reading. The ordinance fixing the number and salaries of the men to serve on the fire department was also passed on its third reading. The tax levy had been read but once and was passed on its first reading. This ordinance was introduced on Tuesday evening and voted upon, but yesterday it was discovered that money for the park, library, printing and health funds had been omitted. They were included as follows: Park, $500; library, $1,000; printing, $300; health fund, $800.

Upon the completion of the action regarding the above ordinances the ordinance committee was heard and it reported that another question of importance had been presented to it and asked permission to present one more ordinance. The members of the committee stated that inasmuch as it has been discovered that the board of public service had no right to employ the city engineer or to designate his salary and that the power and right was entirely with council they would recommend that the following ordinance be passed:

"That there is hereby created the office of city civil engineer, which officer shall be appointed by the mayor subject to confirmation by council, and shall serve for the term of two years from the fourth day of May in each year in which said appointment shall be made and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said city civil engineer shall perform such duties as the nature and character of his office may require, and such other duties not incompatible with the nature of his office. He may employ such assistants and at such compensation as council may name. Said city civil engineer shall receive for his services the sum of $2,000 per year."

Without discussion the ordinance was placed on its first reading. Why council took such a step as the above is hard to imagine. By the ordinance, if it passes and J. C. Kelly is the appointee, he will receive $2,000 for his services. In his contract with the board of public service he agreed to do his work and hire his assistants, all for $1,900. Now council, without solicitation, intends to pay the salary of the assistants and give the engineer the big salary for the same work that he offered to do for about half the total proposed.

Mayor Weaver stated this morning that he would veto the ordinance, and it is understood that citizens will remonstrate over the increase as provided in the ordinance. Those interested in the library fund are unable to understand why $300 should be taken away from it and three times the amount given to an official who has agreed to do the work for much less money.

LONGER HOURS FOR SALOON MEN

Request Preferred to Mayor Weaver For Special Privileges Carnival Week.

The local saloon keepers, through a committee appointed for the purpose, have requested Mayor Weaver to permit them to keep open an hour later during the five days of the carnival next week.

Mayor Weaver stated this morning that it had not been made clear to him that he had the power to act upon the request. "If I have the power," he said, "I will certainly refuse the request."

BELLAIRE FIRM GETS THE CONTRACT

Calcutta Road Paving in St. Clair Township Will Cost About $21,000.

Rosser & Malone, of Bellaire, were the lowest bidders yesterday for the work of paving the Calcutta road in St. Clair township. Their bid amounted to a total of about $21,000. Rinehart Bros., Davis & McNamee, McLaughlin Bros., of this city, and Freshwater & Sons, Chester, were the other bidders.

The bonds of the township will be sold as soon as possible and that done, the contractors will at once be authorized to begin work on the greatly needed improvement.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—John Brighthouse and Emma Graham, Wilbert Evans and Ada Heath, Fred Popin and Alice Cartwright, all of East Liverpool, have been licensed to marry.

MANUFACTURERS ARE OPPOSING IT

The Engineers' Scale Is Encountering Some Unexpected Opposition.

POSITION OF THE UNION

From developments which have come to light since the International Union of Steam Engineers presented its scale to the factory owners of this vicinity, it would appear that there is going to be some opposition to the enforcement of the provisions of the regulations. The scale was presented on last Monday, and at that time the proposal was accompanied by a statement to the effect that the union would allow 30 days in which the employers might go over the several provisions and give the demands all the consideration they would need.

Officers of the organization assert the employers are making a bid for public sentiment in an underhanded way. It had been said by the management of factories in this city that the membership of the union is very limited, and that it would be impossible for it to enforce a wage scale on that account. An officer of the union said this morning:

"Of the number of engineers employed in this community we have a very large percentage in our organization and it is hoped when the 30 days' limit expires to have the entire membership within its ranks. Some of the employees are resorting to unusual tactics in order to defeat our efforts to obtain better conditions for the members of our union. Every one interested is aware that there are two organizations of steam engineers in East Liverpool, and that both are in a prosperous condition. They are in no sense rivals, however, as the aims and objects are as different as if they concerned trades entirely removed from each other. The local branch of the National Association of Stationary Engineers is purely an educational society, and was conceived for the purpose of placing its members on a higher plane in regard to their knowledge of engineering. The members of N. A. S. E. do not take up the matter of wages, and it is never discussed by the association.

"Our organization, on the other hand, is nothing if not a labor union. Its purpose is to better the condition of its members in the matter of wages and working conditions. The two do not conflict and many of the members of the former society are also connected with the union. We as a union have asked for a uniform wage of $2.50 per day and believe we earn every cent of it. To show you to what extremity some of the managers will go I want to cite one case.

"An official of one of the local concerns told our committee that the manufacturers had received word from the East Liverpool branch of the N. A. S. E. to the effect that the latter organization was prepared and stood ready to furnish all the engineers at the rate of $2 per day. We immediately took steps to ascertain the truth of the assertion, and last night representatives of our union met with the association. We secured a positive declaration from the officers and members that they had not, nor would they, make such a proposition to the manufacturers. You can see by this that the employers are endeavoring to create a false impression with the people, and we

BOY'S DEATH MAY RESULT FROM HANDLING A GUN

While at Play Elza Caldwell, of Dixonville, Shot Himself in a Terrible Manner.

CHANCES ARE AGAINST HIS RECOVERY

A terrible tragedy was enacted at the home of Henderson Caldwell, in Dixonville, East End, shortly before noon today, and as a result the life of Elza, his 14-year-old son, is slowly ebbing away. The boy is in a most critical condition and the attending physician has no hope of his recovery.

The tragedy occurred in an upstairs room of the Caldwell home, where Elza and a younger brother were at play. Tiring of other amusements, they seized upon an old shot gun standing in one corner of the room. It afforded them innocent amusement for a time but they attempted to raise the hammer and the weapon was discharged.

The entire charge struck the older boy in the groin, making a gaping wound almost entirely through the body. Dr. Farrell happened to be in believe they mean to stir up a feeling between the two organizations if they can. It will not succeed."

The local engineers' union has been organized but a few months, but is in excellent condition, both financially and numerically. It is not anticipated that any trouble will be encountered in bringing about the changes asked.

BOOKS CORRECT TO A PENNY

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT ON THE STATE TREASURY.

Hon. I. B. Cameron Warmly Commended for the Way He Conducts the Office.

Columbus, July 16.—(Special)—Governor Nash has made public the report of the commission which he appointed, as required by law, to examine the state treasury. Everything was found in excellent condition and State Treasurer I. B. Cameron was commended for the efficient manner in which he conducts the affairs of the department. Under the law there must be no previous notice or intimation of the intention of the commission to make an examination served on the treasurer.

The governor appointed Hon. L. C. Laylin, secretary of state, and Frank R. Shimm, an accountant of Columbus, as the commission and they visited the state treasury on June 13. They made a thorough examination and inspection of all books, vouchers, accounts, records, bonds, securities, claims, assets and effects and found that everything tallied exactly with the accounts of the same kept in the auditor's office and the insurance commissioner's office.

The condition of the finances was found to be perfect. A careful count showed the funds on hand to be $3,210,362.95, the exact amount charged to the treasurer.

Defendant Awarded $270.
Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—The jury in the appropriation case of the Stark Electric Railway company versus Nellie Hogan, of Salem, returned a verdict last evening allowing the defendant $270 for the value of an acre appropriated and $50 damages to the residue of the tract. The case against Charles and Martin Lottman came on for hearing this morning.

Since the hair-raising finish made by the leaders in the News Review voting contest when Series G had been counted yesterday, it was thought the interest might be relaxed to some extent for a few days, but such was not the case. But 15 days remain in which to win out or go down to defeat, and the canvass is being made in a most thorough manner. To the present the contest has been a close one, but the very best of feeling has prevailed throughout, and the friendliness will undoubtedly continue.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

A CRY FOR NOVELTY.

In clay building there are certain type forms which are the natural outcome of the material. It would be absurd to contend that the Indian women copied the ancient British, and yet many pieces are very similar, though produced thousands of miles apart. In like manner, many a piece has been made, in a modern studio, which closely resembles the work of the past, but without the maker ever having seen that which he is accused of copying. It is not to be expected that anyone, before sitting down to shape his clay, shall institute a search in every available quarter, in order that he may not trespass upon any pre-existing forms. No such thought was present to hamper and cripple the enterprise of long ago. The Egyptian, the Greek, the Chinaman, and the Indian, each expressed himself in his material, and it is unfair to deny a similar privilege to the workers of today.

The modern manufacturer is persecuted by the cry for novelty. The senseless demand for new things, new shapes, new colors, new designs, has resulted, on the one hand, in an indiscriminate use of old shapes with some slight change to justify a different name, and, on the other, in the production of certain outrageous objects which may, fortunately, claim to be new. Such things are always new, for they never live long enough to grow old; whereas, the precious productions of ancient time live among men as literature lives. They cannot die, for the world cannot do without them.

GOES TO PEORIA.

Fred Pennington, well known in the western district, has accepted a position with the Crown Pottery company, of Peoria, and will leave for that city next Friday. Mr. Pennington has been prominent in local labor circles, having served with credit in trades council and as one of the directors of the cooperative store. He has also served several terms as secretary of the packers local No. 25. He will take charge of the packing sheds of the Peoria plant.

REASON FOR DELAY.

It is given as the reason for the postponement of the conference between the Brotherhood and manufacturers' committees, that neither side was ready for the arrangement of the final details of the new wage scale. The Brotherhood committee has worked hard to master every detail of the proposition of the manufacturers and a great amount of investigating work has been necessary. The postponement of the conference has no effect upon the present conditions.

NOW INCORPORATED.

The American Kaolin company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $500,000 for the purpose of mining clay and manufacturing pottery, china, etc. The company was incorporated by E. F. Whittum, as president, and

CITIZEN OBJECTS TO STATEMENTS

Made Before Council By Mr. Bullock Concerning the Library Appropriation.

Editor News Review—I want to take exceptions to Mr. Bullock's statement to council that the people voted only in favor of $3,000 for the Carnegie library and no more, for they would be a set of dummies, indeed, to think that the library for all time to come must be run on $3,000 a year no matter what increase in patronage it might have or the demands made upon it.

Mr. Carnegie said: "If you will agree to provide at least $3,000 a year I will give you $50,000." The people said, "We accept your offer."

Now, neither the people nor Mr. Carnegie said: "You shall not provide for more than $3,000." On the contrary, both knew the day would come when the library could not exist on $3,000 a year.

Let me call Mr. Bullock's and council's attention to an act of theirs this week. They provided $1,200 for the Thompson park, and rightly, too. Mr. Thompson in his gift stipulated that the city should provide at least $1,000 a year, just as Mr. Carnegie provided for at least $3,000 a year. Now, why hot and cold in the same evening?

If Mr. Bullock and council are opposed to the principles of a free library be honest enough to say so frankly and let the 100,000 who attended the library last year know it. The paltry $300 taken from the library levy would have added that many books to the shelves the coming year and been of great help to the institution, but I doubt if the same which was added to the city's funds will "cut much ice," as the boys say.

Mr. Editor, I have not the honor to be on the library board and hence am not interested, but I am a citizen-taxpayer, ashamed of the attitude we as a community are placed in by the action of council, crippling as it does the educational facilities of our city.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—here we've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. Them tablets surely make one feel joyful."

THE ELKS' VISIT TO NEW CASTLE

How the Trip and the Visitors Were Sized Up by a Paper of That City.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT

And a Good Base Ball Game Features of the Enjoyable Event—The Program of the Day And Evening And How It Was Carried Out.

In their endeavor to cause the East Liverpool Elks to depart for their homes Tuesday night feeling that New Castle was the most hospitable place they ever visited, the local Elks, whose guests they were, did well. They were here for a whole day, says the New Castle News, and the New Castle brethren saw that not a bull in the way of entertainment occurred.

Good fellowship and conviviality was at a high ebb during the entire proceedings. The common brotherhood of man and the duties toward each other were exemplified on this occasion, for they form the very foundation upon which the principles of the order are built.

The East Liverpool delegation, numbering about 60, arrived in the city shortly before noon. They were met at the depot by the reception committee and escorted to the club rooms of the Elks, where they rested and exchanged greetings with the local members, while E. M. Wier, steward of the club and his competent force of assistants were finishing the preparation for the elegant repast. However, before lunch, the visitors were taken in special cars over the lines of the traction company so that they could see the beauties of our city, with which they were favorably impressed.

The purpose of the visit, however, was to play a game of ball with the New Castle Elks and the strangers were amazed to learn the statement upon their departure that charity and brotherly love had prompted the local lodge at a meeting held last Saturday to pass a resolution to let the East Liverpool club win the game by one run.

However, the East Liverpool players held that justice on the part of the umpire and fidelity of the players to their team, are responsible for their victory.

Therefore, justice, charity, brotherly love and fidelity, the four principles of the order mingled in the hearts of the New Castle and East Liverpool Elks.

The contest was a good one and the account of it is interesting. When the game was over all repaired to the spacious club rooms again, where they had dinner. The comfortable quarters of the local lodge were made even more inviting by the addition of special decorations for the event, and the energies of Mr. Wier and his force were directed after dinner in arranging for the stag social which was held at night. The rooms were trimmed in purple and white, mingled with stars and stripes. Potted plants and flowers adorned the rooms, and banqueting tables, which presented a pleasing sight.

The East Liverpool Elks, together with about 200 of the local members, sat down about 10 o'clock, when S. S. Hamilton introduced Past Exalted Ruler William R. Garvin, as toastmaster of the evening, who in that capacity was right at home. Then followed toasts and addresses from talented members from both lodges, some teeming with wit and humor, while others were expressions of appreciation on the part of the visiting brothers for the entertainment extended to them at the hands of the New Castle lodge. Parsons' orchestra was present and rendered excellent music.

Mayor John C. Jackson delivered the address of welcome in a few well chosen words and was followed by Senator Blake, of East Liverpool, whose remarks rang with expressions of gratitude, interspersed with humorous digression. George E. Davidson, Esq., city solicitor of East Liverpool, did so well when called upon for a toast, that he was prevailed upon to sing, which he did in a pleasing way. When he finished, Toastmaster Garvin announced that it was the hour of 11, at which time a toast to absent brothers is given, and he called upon Attorney R. A. Winternitz to respond to "Our Absent Brothers." The toastmaster referred to him as one whom they all knew could propose the toast in an able and eloquent manner. This was an impressive feature of the evening and Mr. Winternitz in well clothed language expressed the significance of the occasion. Dr. J. Howard Davis, one of the visiting brothers, was called upon and made a few happy remarks. He was followed by Hugh Hamill, of East Liverpool, with a fine solo. Then the inimitable Michael Graham, of this city, was prevailed upon to render one of his characteristic songs. Mr. Gleason, of Pittsburg, spoke for a time in an amusing way, and the visiting Elks left for their special train at the Pennsylvania depot, accompanied by a large number of the local men, after singing "Auld Lang Syne." A pressing invitation was extended the local Elks to again visit East Liverpool before the ball season closes.

EAST END

A BRANCH LIBRARY

May Be Established in East End. Agent is Now Soliciting for Membership.

W. W. Krewkraw, of Philadelphia, representing the Booklovers' Library, has been at work among East End people soliciting support for the establishment here of a branch of the institution. If 75 subscribers can be secured the branch will be started and 200 books will be placed in Williams drug store. Each fortnight 45 books are to be returned to headquarters, and a similar number of new ones received. The membership fee for the first year is $1.50 and for each succeeding year $1.

The Booklovers' and Tabard Inn libraries are now under the same management and both are known over the entire country. The agent is having little difficulty in securing subscribers and in all probability the branch will be established.

Will Resume His Duties.

Rev. P. W. Snyder, pastor of the Long's Run Presbyterian church, who has been ill for the past two months of typhoid fever, has entirely recovered and will resume his work this week. His first sermon since he was taken ill will be delivered next Sunday at the Long's Run church. Members of his congregation and his many friends in East End will be pleased to learn that he has regained his health.

McCormick Improving.

Will McCormick, who was accidentally shot a few days ago by a companion named List, is still confined to his home in Dry Run, although the wound is healing nicely. The ball struck him in the back and pierced the flesh for a distance of several inches. The physicians did not find it necessary to remove the bullet.

Looking for New Quarters.

The Ivy club, composed of about 15 well known East End young men, has vacated its club rooms in Oakland and negotiations are on for quarters in the new Foutts building on Mulberry street. One suite of rooms in the Foutts building has been leased to the Ben Hur band.

Funeral of David Walker.

Brief funeral services over the body of David Walker, the 7-year-old boy who died Tuesday from tetanus, were held yesterday evening at the home near Reister crossing. The body was shipped this morning to Putnam county, W. Va., the former home of the family.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mrs. J. R. Hayes is visiting friends near Hookstown.

T. J. Lloyd, of Wellsville, was calling on East End friends yesterday.

Roy McDaniel has been ill for several days and Dave Buzzard is filling his place at Larkins' store.

Robert Sodaker left this morning for Wellsburg, where he will visit his parents. He will return tomorrow.

W. P. Herbert left last night on the steamer Queen City for Cincinnati, where he will remain for several days.

William Hancock has purchased the lot adjoining his business building and may build a dwelling house this fall.

Mrs. Joseph Peresko, of Virginia avenue, left this morning for New Brighton, having received a message that her mother is seriously ill.

C. E. Weddell was taken seriously ill Tuesday evening with cholera morbus and for a time his condition was critical. He is still in a weakened condition.

Curled His Mother or Ithenmatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Haverhill, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

ROCK SPRINGS THEATRE

May Get the First Engagement of Miss Shay's Novel Production.

Negotiations are now on whereby Miss Ruth Shay's Choir Transformation may appear at the Rock Springs theatre for one week some time during the present season. The piece is a new thing and is bound to go. If the deal is closed with Manager McCollum, the friends of Mr. Shay in this city will be given an opportunity to see the opening engagement of the production right at home. Several thousand dollars has been spent by the projectors of the enterprise in equipping it for the road. The scenery is fine and the musical feature is unsurpassed.

A Woman's Complexion.

It is rank foolishness, to attempt to remove sallowness or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment, as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New size trial bottle, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists.

POLICE VICTORIOUS

Desperate Battle With Mob in Streets of Chicago Against Great Odds.

WATCHMAN FIRES INTO CROWD

Precipitating All Kinds of Trouble. Futile Efforts of Strikers to Stop Delivery of Freight—Score of Arrests Made.

Chicago, July 16.—Desperate fighting between the police and the strikers of the Kellogg Switchboard company took place when the company attempted to send freight to some of the railroad depots. In one instance the police opened fire with revolvers, and although the fusillade was continued for several minutes nobody was injured. Later there was a fight in which no revolvers were used and the police laid out a number of men, some of whom were left in the street until their friends came back and picked them up.

Police Fire on Workmen. The first fight occurred when a truck loaded with freight escorted by police bound for the Burlington depot was passing an unfinished building at the corner of Harrison and Peoria streets. A howling mob of a thousand men and boys was following the police and pelting them with stones and sticks. Teamsters who sympathized with the strikers managed to get their wagon in the way of the Kellogg company's wagon as it reached Peoria street and occasioned a blockade. The police were endeavoring to clear the street, when the workmen on the unfinished building showered them with bricks.

The officers at once drew their revolvers and fired at the workmen, who hastily fled to the interior of the building. The police kept up their fire through the windows and drove nearly all the workmen from the place. The route to the depot was then taken up, and although there were several blockades the wagon reached the depot and the goods were delivered.

The second fight occurred when the police were escorting a wagonload of freight to the warehouse of the Terminal Transfer company at Ogden avenue and Twelfth street. A mob fully 2,000 strong followed this wagon and although the police were outnumbered a hundred to one they took the wagon safely to the depot. The mob had greatly increased by the time the wagon was ready to make the return trip, and for half a mile it pursued the police, applying to them all sorts of epithets and pelting them with sticks and stones, without, however, injuring any person seriously.

Mob Charges on Police.

The climax came at Congress street and Ogden avenue, when a private watchman, who had no particular call to mix in the trouble on either side, fired at one of the mob. The shot went wild, but it inflamed the mob to the highest degree, and with shouts and yells they charged down on the police. The latter were waiting for the crowd and when it arrived the officers went at it with fists and clubs. They were greatly outnumbered, but they fought well together, and in less than three minutes every member of the mob who could use his feet was doing so to the best of his ability. Fully a dozen men with broken heads were left lying in the street where they had been knocked by the clubs of the officers. Some of them were loaded into the wagon and taken to the police station, as were a number who were not quick enough in commencing their retreat. About 20 arrests were made during the day.

The Kellogg company announces that it will continue to send out freight every day and the strikers say that they will use every means to prevent their doing so.

At all the depots where freight was delivered the freight handlers refused to unload any of the wagons and the work was done by special men employed by the company.

The strike, which has now been in progress for a month, was ordered by the unions because the company refused to sign an agreement to employ union men exclusively. The questions of wages and hours were agreed upon by both sides, but the company refused to force its non-union men into the organization.

Infirmary Director—THOMAS KELLY.
Coroner—D. J. JONES.

A communication in another column calls attention to the fact that unnecessary and unseemly haggling is going on in council over the appropriation for Carnegie library for the coming year. The difference between the amount recommended by the tax commission and the amount at which Councilman Bullock seeks to fix the appropriation is only $300. The tax commission is composed of gentlemen who are familiar with the needs of the library and also with the financial affairs of the city. They are quite as astute and able financiers as Councilman Bullock, to say the least, and why his recommendation should carry more weight than theirs it is impossible to conceive. If it were proposed to save $3,000 or $5,000, the matter would be worth considering, but where only the paltry sum of $300 is concerned, since experience has demonstrated that the money is needed, there is no excuse for such a chattering policy. Economy in public expenditures is wise and necessary; rigidity is neither wise nor politic. If it is necessary to cut some appropriation $300 there are funds that can bear the reduction vastly better than that of the library. There has been no extravagance in the management of that institution, but instead the utmost care, neatness and caution. Yet it has been demonstrated that the minimum appropriation of $3,000 is barely sufficient to run the library, and leave practically nothing for the purchase of new books or for the replacing of old and worn-out volumes. It is simply folly to cripple the usefulness of a noble institution in its infancy for the sake of $300 which is quite likely to be wasted somewhere else. The time will come as the city grows when the library cannot be maintained and kept abreast of the times on the $3,000 which Mr. Carnegie fixed as the minimum of annual expenditure. The absurdity of the proposition that the appropriation can not legally exceed that figure is apparent to every one. Three hundred dollars means much to the library and very little to the city. Council should not listen to the penny wise and pound foolish argument that the library fund is the one to cut. East Liverpool has always been liberal in appropriations for its educational institutions, and the library, fast assuming a place among the grandest of them, should not be made to suffer simply because a councilman seeks a cheap method of gaining notoriety as an economist.

Although it is almost two weeks since the Fourth of July celebration of that day still continues to furnish items for the newspapers and business for physicians and coroners. The effects of the deadly toy pistol are still being felt, as is attested by the list of deaths from lockjaw recorded daily in all the large cities. There is scarcely a town of any importance in the country that has not added one or more victims to the melancholy chapter, and the harvest of death is likely to continue for some weeks yet. All this terrible waste of human life—the victims being largely children—is needless and wantonly reckless. It should arouse public sentiment and compel legislatures and city councils to enact measures that will relegate the death-dealing toy pistol to the same category as other destructive agencies and sternly forbid its sale and use. The law kills mad dogs and restricts the sale of poisons. Yet here is a so-called plaything that causes more misery and more deaths than both, and as yet scarcely anything has been done to interfere with its baleful work. It is high time that the press, the pulpit and other reform agencies began an agitation that shall continue until the toy pistol has been put out of business.

If, as seems apparent, the object of the amended ordinance regarding the police force is to legislate Chief of Police Wyman out of office, council should seriously consider the step it is asked to take before acting. Mayor Weaver is the executive head of the city of East Liverpool and responsible to the whole city for its government and the enforcement of its laws. He has shown a disposition to be fair and just, and it would be a serious mistake to tie his hands or to force him to select a chief of police whom he does not want or one with whom he cannot work in perfect agreement. Chief of Police Wyman is an experienced officer, as well as one who is strong and capable. He is the man whom the mayor chose to assist him in preserving order in the city and in suppressing lawlessness, and there is no good reason yet adduced for legislating him out of office. His position is one that is difficult to fill, and changes in a place of such importance, after it is once well filled, ought not to be encouraged.

ident Horwell asked for remarks. The only member replying was Smith, the councilman from the East End. He said that he could not understand the action of his brother members; that they could not be in favor of the alteration if they wanted to give the people protection and that he would never vote for the passage of the ordinance. The president then demanded a vote and it resulted as follows: For the passage of the ordinance—Croxall, Bullock, Moon and Johnston. Against the passage—Smith.

Mayor Weaver was present when the work was done but had nothing to say until the body adjourned. He then got into a lively conversation with Croxall. He asked him why such action was taken and the councilman was in hard straits to discover an answer. He finally said, however, that it was done because the board of public safety had asked for a night watch man and that council thought the request should be granted. He maintained that the extra man together with 8 patrolmen and a chief would make the expense too heavy for the people. The mayor was so angry that it was impossible for him to restrain from retaliation and he scored the councilman in many expressive epithets.

In conversation with a reporter of the News Review regarding the council action, Mayor Weaver said: "It was the working of low-down politics. There is not one of the members of council who voted for the passage of that ordinance who can justify himself before the eyes of our best citizens. I feel that it is a direct blow at the success of my administration. I have no desire other than to see that the city shall be orderly and decent and I would certainly insist on the affairs being conducted in a business-like and proper manner. The action cannot be justified on the grounds of economy. There is no one who will insist that we have a sufficient supply of police in the city. The continuous clamor is for additional officers. The aim of the whole thing in a nutshell is to get Chief Wyman out of office. I don't believe that there is any class opposed to Wyman, except the gamblers, saloonkeepers and law-breakers, the honorable members of council to the contrary notwithstanding."

"The action taken by council was dirty, low and contemptible, and I don't believe there is a man among them who voted in favor of the ordinance who can look me straight in the eye and give a plausible excuse for the action."

"I don't know exactly what my recourse is, but I don't propose to let the work of four men such as voted in the affirmative last night have any influence on my action. I do propose to employ the highest authority, and if Wyman is knocked out it will only be after a hard battle."

made acquainted with the circumstances and asked to take some action. The grievance committee of the council will also give the matter some consideration.

A communication had been received from the San Francisco central labor union some time ago, which was of very great importance to the workers of the country. Matters of the utmost importance would be up for consideration at the meeting of the A. F. of L., when it meets in Boston next November, and the communication urged that the local council send a delegate to the meeting. As has been customary until last year the council, by vote, decided to have representation at the next session of the federation.

A report was made on the condition of the co-operative store. It had been determined to change the system of doing business somewhat, and the directors deemed it wise to acquaint the council, which was the father of the institution, with the details of the new plan. The business is in good condition, and with the inauguration of the new and more modern system, it was confidently expected the concern would be more prosperous than ever.

You are paying $15.00 a month rent; your neighbor is paying $15.00 a month on his property. In ten years you will have 120 rent receipts representing $1800.00 of your hard earned money. Your neighbor will have a deed free and clear from all encumbrances for his home worth perhaps $2500.00. You paid $1800.00 out and have nothing. He paid $1800.00 out and owns his home which meanwhile has grown in value. He has $2500.00 to his credit in property; you have nothing. You earned $3.00 per day. He earned $3.00 per day. You had a wife and family. He had a wife and family. You had sickness of yourself and family. He had sickness of himself and family. You had no work part of the time. He had no work part of the time. You had to meet your $15.00 rent monthly. He had to meet his $15.00 payment monthly. Had you failed to have paid your rent you would have been ejected. Had he failed to make his payments he would have taken advantage of the Grace in his Contract.

CLIMAX REACHED IN THE STRUGGLE

Dallas Pittenger Sues for His Salary as Janitor of City Building.

The climax has been reached in the struggle between council and the board of public service for control of the city building, the matter having been taken into the court of Justice Riley for an airing by Dallas Pittenger, who sues for his salary as janitor of the building. He was appointed by the board of public service, but council has steadfastly refused to appropriate money for the payment of his services on the ground that it would be a useless expenditure, as the janitor work has been done heretofore by the city building policeman. Nothing daunted Pittenger continued to do the work and several times presented his bill for payment. It was turned down with the regularity of clock work, and on Wednesday afternoon Pittenger brought suit, through his attorney, F. L. Jones, in 'Squire Riley's court, for $59.51, the amount claimed due him for 10 days in May and all of June.

The hearing has been set for Saturday, July 25, and the outcome will be watched with the deepest interest by the taxpayers generally. Pittenger and the city building policeman, William Elliott, have both been on duty at the building. Elliott looks after Mayor Fogo's office and the city jail. One morning not long ago Pittenger went into the mayor's office for the purpose of cleaning it up and was ordered to stay out. He was given distinctly to understand that he had no business whatever there in the capacity of janitor, and since that time he has confined his work to the other parts of the building.

Whatever may be the decision of 'Squire Riley there is sure to be an appeal to the common pleas court. City Solicitor Boyd is sanguine that the city can successfully resist payment of Pittenger's claim and believes council did right in refusing to pay him.

The fight will be one to the finish and the first round in the 'squire's court is eagerly awaited.

REORGANIZATION OF FIRE LADS

New Officers And New Equipment Are Promised the Department.

Fire Chief Phillips has called a general meeting of the three companies at the city hall hose house for tomorrow night when three captains, three lieutenants and a secretary and treasurer will be elected. The reorganization will be thorough in every particular, the intention being to make the department strictly up-to-date.

Considerable new hose and other appliances are being purchased and as soon as possible a horse and wagon will be purchased for the West End hose house. It is often a very difficult matter to find a ready horse at night for that portion of the city, and the uptown companies invariably reach the scene of fire first on account of that lack and hindrance in the West End.

It is proposed to make the West End hose wagon a police patrol also, as something of that kind has long been needed here. There is talk of an automobile patrol, but nothing definite has yet been decided upon in that regard.

NEARLY BURIED ALIVE

A Plumber Had a Close Call from Being Overwhelmed And Crushed.

While working in a six-foot trench at the Whitaker block yesterday afternoon Thomas Wilkinson, a plumber, came near being buried alive as the result of the trench caving in. Fortunately he was standing when the dirt closed in around him and his neck and head were not covered.

Wilkinson has an impediment of speech and it was some time before he succeeded in summoning help. Some bricklayers heard his cries and rescued him after 20 minutes hard work. He was not injured in the least.

New York Wants Third Bridge.

New York, July 16.—The board of estimate and apportionment unanimously reappropriated $6,533,000 for the usage of Manhattan bridge (No. 3 over the East river between Manhattan and Brooklyn). SOUTH SIDE

A HUGE GASSER ON HADLEY FARM

CHESTER OIL & GAS COMPANY'S BIG STRIKE.

Preparations Being Hastened for the Development of the Entire Territory of 500 Acres.

The wildest excitement prevailed in Chester this morning when Isaac Clark, one of the drillers, arrived in town with the information that a heavy pressure of gas had been struck at the first well put down by the Chester Oil & Gas company, and that the men at work had experienced great difficulty in keeping the tools in the well, so strong was the force of the gas.

Clark was so frustrated by the sudden find that he was able to give but a meager account of the affair, and in a very few minutes several back loads of stockholders in the company were on their way to the field. Some of the parties returned just before noon and from them it was learned that the gas came in when the well was at a depth of only about 700 feet and before the sand had been reached. The fact is an unusual one and is taken by the interested parties to mean that the well will be a permanent one.

Supt. Wells and the other practical men made preparations at once for the handling of the gas. A man was sent to Pittsburg for the cap and other necessary supplies to seal up the hole. When this has been done steps will be taken to develop the remainder of the territory. An attempt will be made to ascertain the exact amount of pressure there is in the well before it is capped.

The well is located on the Edward Hadley farm, and is thought to be a good one. The Chester Oil & Gas company was but recently organized, and is made up of Chester and East Liverpool parties. Their lease consists of about 500 acres of very promising territory. Two other wells have not yet been located by the experts, the work will be started at once. The drillers will begin the preparation for a move at once, and it is expected that the second well will be started within a few days. Meantime the stockholders in the company are considering the advisability of taking up more territory.

GOOD PROGRESS

Is Being Made By the Chester Street Department With the Street Paving.

The work of paving the principal thoroughfares in Chester is being pushed as fast as the weather and the limited force of workmen will permit. Carolina avenue is nearly completed for its entire length, and the work is well under way on Virginia avenue.

The management of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs railway has been keeping up with the city in the laying of bricks between the rails on those streets over which the tracks are laid, and at some points are entirely through with their share of the improvement.

A vast sum of money is being spent by the city in putting down the pavements, but it is calculated the residents will be amply repaid.

M'CRAW AT LARGE

A Report to That Effect Is Sent Out from New Cumberland Today.

Word was received in Chester this morning that Terry McGraw, the desperate character who gave the authorities so much trouble a few weeks ago when an attempt was made to arrest him, had been released from the New Cumberland jail. The report could not be confirmed, but much indignation was expressed that such a thing should even be hinted at.

McGraw, it will be remembered, had a fight on an excursion train en route from Pittsburg to Rock Springs, and Conductor Conley was terribly beaten. McGraw continued his carousal at the bar and was arrested. Justice Pugh bound him over to court at the preliminary hearing and he has been in the New Cumberland jail ever since.

The information brought to Chester said that McGraw had raised $50 with which to secure his release, and that the bond had been lowered to accommodate his pile. The thug claimed he could beat the Chester people if the case came to trial, since the fight had occurred in Pennsylvania, and he could not be prosecuted in this state. The assault on the conductor was the only charge against McGraw, and it is supposed the New Cumberland authorities deemed it wise to take no risk so let him go.

CHESTER NOTES.

Unusual activity is noticed at the Chester freight station. Large consignments of oak lumber, sewer pipe and brick are being unloaded in the yards and the vicinity has the appearance of one of the large cities. A large amount of wool is being shipped from this point, and the loading process requires the services of many men.

S. Cooper, who has been confined to his home on Carolina avenue for some time with consumption, was somewhat improved yesterday and was able to go to the country for a short visit.

A. V. Thompson, of Pittsburg, is in Chester today on business.

R. G. Dunn is contemplating a trip to Mt. Clemens, Mich., for the benefit of his health.

Edgar Ewing was in Pittsburg yesterday on business.

The Simpson M. E. Sunday school is picnicking at Rock Springs park today. About 600 of the members are present and a pleasant time is being spent.

BURNING RUBBISH WILL BE STOPPED

The Mayor Determined to Stop the Building of Bonfires in the City.

Mayor Weaver announced this morning that he intends to rigidly enforce the ordinance regulating the burning of paper and rubbish within the limits of the city. During the past few days several complaints have been filed at central station and in two instances the violators of the ordinance have placed property in danger of destruction.

One resident reported this morning that a man living next to him had been making a practice of burning papers near his (the former's) barn. The mayor informed the complainant that he could have the violator arrested, but he did not wish to do that until the warning was given.

When the All Cubans return to the young republic after the base ball season is over they will have a great story to tell of a south paw slab artist who made them think the ball was coming over the pan when it didn't and made it come over when they thought it wouldn't. The south paw's curves also had a provoking habit of taking a drop just as the plate was reached and the Cubans' bats made temporary holes in the air.

Miller was never in better form and his pitching would have beaten most any team. With rather liberal scoring, the Cubans are credited with five hits while eleven batsmen went out on strikes. His control was excellent but two men getting free transportation to first Munoz by the "Big Four" route and Viola when Miller tickled his ribs with the sphere.

There is a hard luck story connected with the majority of those five safeties. Two of them were liners past short just close enough to Gibby's mitts to tantalize him. Tommy Davis might have knocked down another screaming grounder but he missed it by a narrow margin. Another was an attempted sacrifice that eluded both Emmerling and Miller. But on the other hand several raps that looked safe were turned into putouts. Webb dug one up out of the sand that was going past second in an awful hurry and Reark whetted up his appetite on a couple of short flies and a liner. The only wobble of the game was Tommy Davis' wild throw to first in the ninth and it cost a run.

Signor Munoz, who served the shots and slants for the visitors, seemed to have a puzzling delivery but he was touched for nine safeties, one of them a three bagger. He relies entirely on an underhand ball and his curves have an unusually quick break. The team gave him good support, but one of the trio of errors figuring in the score.

Tommy Davis made his first appearance with the locals since he listened to the sirens song in Wellsville. He was stationed at third, Brown going to left and Wallace to first.

Bustamante and Carilla struck out for a starter and Padron did his best to follow suit, but muffed the third one. The ball struck Padron's hat and bounded far enough away to allow him to reach first. He was left on Cabrera's weakling to Miller. With two to the bad in East Liverpool's half, Brown hit safely, but it was ammunition wasted as Davis failed to connect.

There was more doing for Miller in the strike out line in the third, Magrina and Bustamante being the victims. East Liverpool gathered a cluster of runs and hits in her half. Miller singled to left and he took second while Gibson was being thrown out on his grounder to Carilla. Maley sent a high one to Carilla and Wallace was started around the circuit when Munoz hit him between the shoulders with a fast shoot. Brown made another hit and this time it was a right field shot that counted for three bases, Miller and Wallace scoring.

Miller's only bad inning was the fourth. After Carilla skied out to Reark, Padron sent a liner to left over Gibson's head and went to second when Cabrera's bunt played tag with Emmerling and Miller. Viola hit to Miller and Padron was forced at third. Pitcher Munoz then tried to win his own game with a pretty hit to center. The ball bounded over Reark's shoulder and Munoz went to second while Cabrera and Viola counted.

For the third time, Bustamante went out on strikes in the fifth. Rosado and Magrina, who had preceded him at the bat, had gone out in the same way. Maley and Wallace rapped out safeties in East Liverpool's half, but they perished on the bases.

Tommy Davis made the circuit in the sixth. He landed at first on Cabrera's error and Webb sacrificed him to second. Reark singled and Emmerling sacrificed. Miller sent a hot one through the infield to center and Davis scored. Reark also tried to reach home on the hit but Viola nailed him at the plate with a fine throw.

With one out in the ninth, Viola grounded to Davis. The chilly wind had taken a few kinks in Tommy's throwing arm and he made a weird throw to first, Viola going around to third, counting on Munoz' out to Webb. Molina fanned and East Liverpool's losing streak was broken. Score:

SPORTING MISCELLANY.
The American league drew 581 spectators in Washington Monday and 842 in New York. This does not pay salaries.

Manager McAleer fined Pitcher Frank Donahue $100 for drinking four glasses of beer. He may lose his high-priced twirler.

Frank Bowerman, the highest-priced man now standing behind the rubber, was a pupil of "Buck" Ewing, of Cincinnati, and says Ewing taught him what he knows about base ball.

Frank Bowerman, of the New York team, has been fined $100 for his assault on Manager Fred Clarke, of the Pittsburghs, in the office at the Polo grounds, New York city, about three weeks ago.

"Jim" Keenan, of Cincinnati, once a famous catcher, who was with the Pittsburgh team in the early eighties, never misses a game. He likes the sport so well that he paid $20 to see a recent contest.

Of the pitchers in the American league who have won half of their games for the season, Cy Young and Bill Dineen, both of the Beaneaters, are in the lead. Patterson, of Chicago, follows, and Bernhard, of Cleveland, is next. Waddell has lost some of his prestige. Kennedy and Wilhelm, of Pittsburgh, lead the National league, with Mathewson, of New York, close to the top. Leever, of Pittsburgh, leads in shutout games.

Clarence Bonamont, the star outfielder of the Pittsburgh team, and a champion batsman and bunt hitter, is the first of any of the big league players who has reached the century mark in base hits for the present season. Hans Wagner is a close second. In 1902 Willie Keeler reached the century mark by July 15, but Bonamont, by his performance, has beaten him out several days. Keeler, the mighty, is way down the line this year, with 67 base hits.

LOW-DOWN POLITICS SAYS MAYOR WEAVER

Council's Manifest Intention to Put Chief Wyman Out of Office Scathingly Condemned.

MEANING OF A PENDING ORDINANCE

For the purpose of effecting the removal of John W. Wyman from the office of chief of police, four members of the city council, Bullock, Croxall, Moon and Johnston, at the adjourned meeting held last evening, by their vote in the affirmative had an ordinance, providing for a chief of police, seven patrolmen and a night watchman, placed on its first reading. President Horwell, who presided, had nothing to say regarding the ordinance. Mr. Smith raised strenuous objections.

The first ordinance drafted for the purpose of creating and classifying the offices incident to the police department, it will be remembered, was introduced several weeks ago and was placed on its first reading. It was expected that the ordinance would come up at the regular meeting of council on last Tuesday evening, but owing to the negligence of some one, nobody knows who, it was not presented. One member of council asked where it was and the reply was made, "It is not here." It is now evident that there was a strong reason for its being kept away.

After every other ordinance had been disposed of last evening a member again asked for the ordinance. It was called for by the president and before a motion to pass upon it was honored Croxall got the floor and stated that he had an amendment to offer to the original ordinance. The amendment was to decrease the number of patrolmen from 8 to 7 and provide a night watchman at the city hall, his salary to be fixed at $45 per month. The motion was seconded and Pres-

A HUNTER FOUGHT BY AN ANGRY CROW

The Bird Thought the Man Poached On His Preserves and Scratched and Bit.

SERIOUS WOUND GIVEN

For several weeks past there has been a rivalry between two parties of ground hog hunters in Chester. The men are employees of the tin mill and for days have been spending all their spare time at the sport. They have learned all the tricks known to modern hunters, and have put many of them into execution, with the result that the ground hog has become very scarce in that locality.

Charles Melott and a party left the town on Monday for a cleaning up, and while going through a corn field south of the city succeeded in getting a shot at an animal which he at first thought was a bear, but upon going to the spot after he had killed it found that he had bagged a ground hog weighing 40 pounds. The most peculiar part of the find was the fact that the animal was entirely white. The oldest hunters of the community had never before seen the like, and feeling sure he had captured a freak, Melott returned to town and put his find on exhibition.

The success which attended Melott and his friends made the other party jealous, and B. I. Hilliard, Willard Mercer and Lon Shaffer went to the country yesterday and did not return until this morning. About four miles southeast of Chester the dogs ran a ground hog into a hollow tree, and some difficulty was experienced in getting him out. It was found that a hole had been rotted away about 20 feet from the ground, and Hilliard, without thinking of any danger, climbed to it and commenced the task of routing the ground hog. The animal had crawled to the spot and was close to the hole when Hilliard appeared. He was able to use but one hand, and the animal fought desperately. While engaged with the beast a crow, which had been perched high up in the tree, swooped down on the tin worker and he was attacked on the other side. Hilliard was bitten and scratched in a terrible manner by the infuriated bird, and is now suffering from a nasty bite on one of his fingers. He abandoned the fight and slid to the ground, more dead than alive. The ground hog was shot later and when weighed the men claimed tipped the scales at 60 pounds.

Hilliard's hand is terribly swollen, and it is feared blood poisoning may result.

BETTER STREETS FOR THE COUNTY SEAT

Important Paving Projects Which Are Likely to Be Undertaken Soon.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—Several street paving projects are being considered by Lisbon property owners, which, if carried out, will be a great improvement to the city. The principal one of these is the paving of North Market street from the point where the paving ends a short distance north of the square to the fair grounds, and it is said that a petition to this end has received the required number of signatures of property owners who are willing to pave at their own expense.

A short section of street running north from the northeast corner of the square one block to Chestnut street on which the city hall will be located will also probably be paved. The paving of South Market street from the Hasbrouck hotel to the P. L. & W. railroad track is also contemplated.

TRADES COUNCIL FIGHTS GAS STEAL

Legislative Committee Will Aid the City Council to Enforce Ordinance.

BLACKSMITHS IN TROUBLE

Another formidable opponent has just been enlisted to fight the gas corporation, and the city council will have the support and endorsement of the East Liverpool central labor union, representing over 4,000 good citizens, in its effort to enforce the ordinance restricting the price of gas.

The matter was discussed by the trades council at its last meeting, and was at that time placed in the hands of the legislative committee with authority to proceed with the fight as best suited. A careful inquiry has been made by the committee during the past week, and a report was made at the meeting last night. It is the opinion of the committee that the gas company proposes to resist the effort to keep the price of gas within reason, and that the city council ought to be prepared to take the question to the courts for a decision as to the constitutionality of the state law which gave it the authority for the enactment of the ordinance. The committee made arrangements to attend the meeting of the city council this evening, at which time an exchange of ideas will be had, and other details arranged whereby an organized effort can be made to prevent the robbery about to be perpetrated by the gas combination.

The attendance was not large at the meeting of the central body last evening but the interest did not lag for a moment. J. Brooks was the only new candidate seated last night, and he hailed from the teamsters.

An important communication was received from the headquarters office of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths at Moline, Ill. It dealt with the strike now on at the factory of the McDole Hammer company at Norwich, N. Y., in which more than the usual interest has been taken by unionists all over the country. The circular asked that the council have a committee appointed to call upon the local retailers and ascertain whether or not any of the product of the non-union firm is being handled in this city. If so, the committee was to request the retailer to discontinue its sale until such time as the Norwich firm signed the scale and squared itself with the union. The request was complied with and a committee consisting of Fred Pennington, S. A. Shipley and George Eisenhuth was appointed to perform the work.

A report was forthcoming from a number of other locals with reference to the views of the members on the question of whether or not there was to be a labor day parade this year. Those reporting were unanimous in favor of the feature, and it now looks as though the labor day committee would head the overwhelming sentiment for a parade.

Delegate Wright, from the painters' union, reported that Samuel Steele, a member of local union No. 9, persisted in allowing a non-union firm to proceed with the painting of his house. Steele had been approached by the business agent of the painters and had ignored his appeals. The local to which Steele belongs will be

The Tax Levy Amended and Placed Upon Its Second Reading.

CITY ENGINEER'S OFFICE

Created By a New Measure And the Engineer's Salary Fixed at $2,000 Though He Offered to Do the Work And Pay His Help for Less.

Council acted upon nothing but ordinances at the adjourned meeting last evening. It had been made plain to the members that the ordinance designating the tax levy should be passed and submitted to the county auditor, and as it was desired to give the city officials and employees their salaries three meetings were arranged for. The last of them will be held this evening.

The ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles was introduced and placed on its third reading. The ordinance fixing the number and salaries of the men to serve on the fire department was also passed on its third reading. The tax levy had been read but once and was passed on its first reading. This ordinance was introduced on Tuesday evening and voted upon, but yesterday it was discovered that money for the park, library, printing and health funds had been omitted. They were included as follows: Park, $500; library, $1,000; printing, $300; health fund, $800.

Upon the completion of the action regarding the above ordinances the ordinance committee was heard and it reported that another question of importance had been presented to it and asked permission to present one more ordinance. The members of the committee stated that inasmuch as it has been discovered that the board of public service had no right to employ the city engineer or to designate his salary and that the power and right was entirely with council they would recommend that the following ordinance be passed:

"That there is hereby created the office of city civil engineer, which officer shall be appointed by the mayor subject to confirmation by council, and shall serve for the term of two years from the fourth day of May in each year in which said appointment shall be made and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said city civil engineer shall perform such duties as the nature and character of his office may require, and such other duties not incompatible with the nature of his office. He may employ such assistants and at such compensation as council may name. Said city civil engineer shall receive for his services the sum of $2,000 per year."

Without discussion the ordinance was placed on its first reading. Why council took such a step as the above is hard to imagine. By the ordinance, if it passes and J. C. Kelly is the appointee, he will receive $2,000 for his services. In his contract with the board of public service he agreed to do his work and hire his assistants, all for $1,900. Now council, without solicitation, intends to pay the salary of the assistants and give the engineer the big salary for the same work that he offered to do for about half the total proposed.

Mayor Weaver stated this morning that he would veto the ordinance, and it is understood that citizens will remonstrate over the increase as provided in the ordinance. Those interested in the library fund are unable to understand why $300 should be taken away from it and three times the amount given to an official who has agreed to do the work for much less money.

LONGER HOURS FOR SALOON MEN

Request Preferred to Mayor Weaver For Special Privileges Carnival Week.

The local saloon keepers, through a committee appointed for the purpose, have requested Mayor Weaver to permit them to keep open an hour later during the five days of the carnival next week.

Mayor Weaver stated this morning that it had not been made clear to him that he had the power to act upon the request. "If I have the power," he said, "I will certainly refuse the request."

BELLAIRE FIRM GETS THE CONTRACT

Calcutta Road Paving in St. Clair Township Will Cost About $21,000.

Rosser & Malone, of Bellaire, were the lowest bidders yesterday for the work of paving the Calcutta road in St. Clair township. Their bid amounted to a total of about $21,000. Rinehart Bros., Davis & McNamee, McLaughlin Bros., of this city, and Freshwater & Sons, Chester, were the other bidders.

The bonds of the township will be sold as soon as possible and that done, the contractors will at once be authorized to begin work on the greatly needed improvement.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—John Brighthouse and Emma Graham, Wilbert Evans and Ada Heath, Fred Pepin and Alice Cartwright, all of East Liverpool, have been licensed to marry.

MANUFACTURERS ARE OPPOSING IT

The Engineers' Scale Is Encountering Some Unexpected Opposition.

POSITION OF THE UNION

From developments which have come to light since the International Union of Steam Engineers presented its scale to the factory owners of this vicinity, it would appear that there is going to be some opposition to the enforcement of the provisions of the regulations. The scale was presented on last Monday, and at that time the proposal was accompanied by a statement to the effect that the union would allow 30 days in which the employers might go over the several provisions and give the demands all the consideration they would need.

Officers of the organization assert the employers are making a bid for public sentiment in an underhanded way. It had been said by the management of factories in this city that the membership of the union is very limited, and that it would be impossible for it to enforce a wage scale on that account. An officer of the union said this morning:

"Of the number of engineers employed in this community we have a very large percentage in our organization and it is hoped when the 30 days' limit expires to have the entire membership within its ranks. Some of the employees are resorting to unusual tactics in order to defeat our efforts to obtain better conditions for the members of our union. Every one interested is aware that there are two organizations of steam engineers in East Liverpool, and that both are in a prosperous condition. They are in no sense rivals, however, as the aims and objects are as different as if they concerned trades entirely removed from each other. The local branch of the National Association of Stationary Engineers is purely an educational society, and was conceived for the purpose of placing its members on a higher plane in regard to their knowledge of engineering. The members of the N. A. S. E. do not take up the matter of wages, and it is never discussed by the association.

"Our organization, on the other hand, is nothing if not a labor union. Its purpose is to better the condition of its members in the matter of wages and working conditions. The two do not conflict and many of the members of the former society are also connected with the union. We as a union have asked for a uniform wage of $2.50 per day and believe we earn every cent of it. To show you to what extremity some of the managers will go I want to cite one case.

"An official of one of the local concerns told our committee that the manufacturers had received word from the East Liverpool branch of the N. A. S. E. to the effect that the latter organization was prepared and stood ready to furnish all the engineers at the rate of $2 per day. We immediately took steps to ascertain the truth of the assertion, and last night representatives of our union met with the association. We secured a positive declaration from the officers and members that they had not, nor would they, make such a proposition to the manufacturers. You can see by this that the employers are endeavoring to create a false impression with the people, and we

While at Play Elza Caldwell, of Dixonville, Shot Himself in a Terrible Manner.

CHANCES ARE AGAINST HIS RECOVERY

A terrible tragedy was enacted at the home of Henderson Caldwell, in Dixonville, East End, shortly before noon today, and as a result the life of Elza, his 14-year-old son, is slowly ebbing away. The boy is in a most critical condition and the attending physician has no hope of his recovery.

The tragedy occurred in an upstairs room of the Caldwell home, where Elza and a younger brother were at play. Tiring of other amusements, they seized upon an old shot gun standing in one corner of the room. It afforded them innocent amusement for a time but they attempted to raise the hammer and the weapon was discharged.

The entire charge struck the older boy in the groin, making a gaping wound almost entirely through the body. Dr. Farrell happened to be in the neighborhood and he rendered prompt medical attention. He succeeded in staunching the flow of blood but the wound is of such a character that death is almost sure to result. The boy is suffering intense agony and the members of the family are almost prostrated over the affair.

The gun, as a usual thing, was not loaded, but a few days ago the father placed a charge in it, intending to kill some rats.

Henderson is employed at the Electrical Porcelain works and stated there this morning that the shot gun was an old one and not in good repair. The hammer spring is very stiff and the hammer will not remain cocked. It is thought that the boys were trying to raise the hammer, when it slipped from their fingers, causing the gun to discharge.

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT ON THE STATE TREASURY.

Hon. I. B. Cameron Warmly Commended for the Way He Conducts the Office.

Columbus, July 16.—(Special)—Governor Nash has made public the report of the commission which he appointed, as required by law, to examine the state treasury. Everything was found in excellent condition and State Treasurer I. B. Cameron was commended for the efficient manner in which he conducts the affairs of the department. Under the law there must be no previous notice or intimation of the intention of the commission to make an examination served on the treasurer.

The governor appointed Hon. L. C. Laylin, secretary of state, and Frank R. Shimm, an accountant of Columbus, as the commission and they visited the state treasury on June 13. They made a thorough examination and inspection of all books, vouchers, accounts, records, bonds, securities, claims, assets and effects and found that everything tallied exactly with the accounts of the same kept in the auditor's office and the insurance commissioner's office.

The condition of the finances was found to be perfect. A careful count showed the funds on hand to be $3,210,362.95, the exact amount charged to the treasurer.

Defendant Awarded $270.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—The jury in the appropriation case of the Stark Electric Railway company versus Nellie Hogan, of Salem, returned a verdict last evening allowing the defendant $270 for the 7.10 of an acre appropriated and $50 damages to the residue of the tract. The case against Charles and Martin Lottman came on for hearing this morning.

Since the hair-raising finish made by the leaders in the News Review voting contest when Series G had been counted yesterday, it was thought the interest might be relaxed to some extent for a few days, but such was not the case. But 15 days remain in which to win out or go down to defeat, and the canvass is being made in a most thorough manner. To the present the contest has been a close one, but the very best of feeling has prevailed throughout, and the friendliness will undoubtedly continue.

The News Review is being commended upon every hand for its generosity and enterprise in making the unprecedented offer of a trip to the old world, as well as an outing at some one of the numerous resorts in this country.

CONDITION IS GRAVE

Remaining Danger Is in Almost Complete Prostration Following Acute Stages.

POPE LEO DYING OF OLD AGE

Science Can Only Assist in Prolonging Precious Existence—Motor Force No Longer Sufficient—Patient Assisted With Stimulants.

London, July 16.—A dispatch from Rome, timed 6:50 a. m., says the pope passed a very restless night and his condition this morning is considerably worse.

Rome, July 16.—3:05 a. m.—The beginning of the second part of the night was somewhat restless and Dr. Lapponi tried to assist the patient with stimulants and nourishment.

Rome, July 16.—Dr. Mazzoni, in reply to the question, "Can the pope recover?" gave the Associated Press correspondent the following signed statement:

"Rome, via Condotti, 9, July 15.—At the present moment the disease of his holiness has lost its character of absolute gravity which it had at its acute period. It might be considered to have entered the period of possible solution. This might occur in a man of strong fiber and young, but it is impossible to entertain such a hope in the case of a man in his 94th year. With him the physical energy absolutely indispensable for recovery is lacking. Pope Leo's organism is perfect and as such maintains itself after 93 years of never interrupted work, but his motor force is no longer sufficient for the complex functions essential to life. In other words, the 93 years of Pope Leo brings him into that category of extraordinary longevity when life is destined to flicker out independent of the action of any pathological complication. The only service that science and affection can render is that of struggling to have this precious existence preserved to us as long as possible.

"GAETANI MAZZONI."
Ravages Wrought by Disease.
One of the doctors in attendance on the pontiff gave the Associated Press correspondent a graphic but horrible word picture of Pope Leo as he appears today. That smile which lighted up the pontiff's face, even in extreme age, has disappeared, probably forever. The skin is drawn tightly over the bony framework of his face, leaving the once bright eyes staring dimly from the deeply sunken sockets. A grayish pallor overspreads his countenance, but the most noticeable ravage wrought by his present disease is the dropping of the lower jaw, which has made the pope's features take on the fixed rigidity of death.

Throughout the day the precincts of the vatican were comparatively quiet, and the immediate vicinity of the sick room showed none of the evidences of agitation and alarm so apparent Tuesday. In marked contrast to previous days the patient was kept in almost absolute seclusion, only one person besides the physicians in immediate attendance gaining admission. This one was Monsignor Piffert, the pope's confessor. Others came to the antechamber, including Cardinals Satolli and Serafini Vannutelli, but they did not press for admission to the sick room, being aware of the doctors' earnest wish to afford the august patient every opportunity of avoiding exertion and mental effort.

During the day the pope took a slight amount of nourishment. Through the morning he was quite restless, shifting uneasily on his bed and complaining of being unable to secure an easy position. Later he became drowsy and during the afternoon had some sleep. The assembling of the doctors at 5:30 o'clock, two hours before the usual time, was not due to any alarming turn in the pope's condition, but through the wish thoroughly to go over every detail of the situation.

His Holiness Still Hopeful.
The moderate tone of the bulletin which followed the visit gave an assurance that the patient's condition was practically unchanged, while the expression that the depression of his strength had not increased afforded a slight note of relief.

In the evening his holiness complained of a slight uneasiness in the chest, but that he has not yet completely given up hope was indicated by his remark that he expected the oppression of his chest to pass off in a few days. During the day the pope drank a few drops of the healing waters from the shrine of Lourdes, several bottles of which were sent to the vatican by the French bishop in whose see Lourdes is situated.

A local paper gravely announces that from the moment Pope Leo swallowed the water an improvement in his condition became apparent.

Strenuous Life of Physicians.
The doctors are well exhausted with their unceasing cares. Dr. Lapponi in particular spends his entire nights as well as days in the sick room. Last before midnight his wife

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Will Often Help You Greatly—Read What An East Liverpool Citizen Says.

You may hesitate to listen to the advice of strangers, but the testimony of residents of East Liverpool is worth your most careful attention. It is an easy matter to investigate such proof as this. The evidence must be conclusive. Read the following:

Mr. W. P. Cochran, of Mulberry street, East End, says: "At intervals for 30 years I had serious kidney and bladder trouble. The agony I went through can hardly be described. Many nights I rolled from one side to another trying to find an easy position for my back; I could not move without having sharp twinges of pain and I was also troubled with urinary difficulty, the secretions being very irregular, and at times very distressing. I ran down so that I could hardly help myself. Doctors treated me. I took a power of stuff and had given up all hope when I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised as a never failing remedy. I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy and after taking half of it I could see some improvement. I continued, and the treatment did me more good than anything I ever used."

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

wishing to see him, went to the vatican. She was taken to a corridor near the sick room, where she saw her husband for a few minutes. An important case now before the British consular court in Rome requires the presence of Dr. Lapponi, but this is impossible because of the pope's condition and also because the vatican affords extra territorial privileges to all within its precincts.

The total number of dispatches inquiring about the pope's health received at the vatican during the day reached 25,000, including some lengthy cables from half round the world.

The total cost of these telegrams is estimated at $30,000. This enormous deluge taxes to the utmost the resources of the vatican administration. A large force of priests and seminarians is temporarily aiding the officials in making responses, which bear the signature of Cardinal Rampolla.

American Ideas to Play Leading Part.
Paris, July 16.—A dispatch from Rome is published here giving an interview with a monsignor who is a friend of the United States. He said that if a number of cardinals favorable to Cardinal Gibbons had not died lately the American cardinal would have had a good chance of being elected. He will have a great influence at the conclave and the authority which Cardinal Gibbons will exercise will probably pave the way to a more just representation of the United States on the sacred college, which will bear fruit at the next conclave.

Even now, asserted the monsignor, the Catholics of the republic of the United States will not permit a monarchical nation to intervene with her veto. American ideas will play a leading part from the very beginning at the coming conclave and it is sure that these ideas will have a most powerful influence on the future destinies of the church of Rome.

Details Will Be Suppressed
Publication of Suicide Stories Believed to Influence Others in Taking Their Own Lives.

Cleveland, July 16.—Coroner Burke says he will make an attempt to suppress details in the cases of all suicides.

"The publication of suicide stories under glaring headlines, giving every detail of the crime," said the coroner, "is most harmful to the public at large and is the direct cause of so many suicides. I have noticed that when a suicide by carbolic acid is printed a number of suicides immediately follow in the same manner. The same may be said of a suicide by shooting or any other ways that are more commonly employed."

"The minds of a great many people are very easily influenced and the reports published by the newspapers setting forth the whole life of the suicide so works upon the minds of some people that for mere notoriety they take their own life. This may in a measure account for the large number of suicides for which no reason for the act can be learned."

Coroner Burke said he would confer with the managing editors of the local press and ask their co-operation in his efforts to carry out his idea.

Knapp's Fate in Jury's Hands.
Hamilton, O., July 16.—The Alfred A. Knapp wife murder case is in the hands of the jury. Lawyer Thomas Darby made his closing argument, pleading that Knapp was insane and not responsible. Prosecutor Warren Gard asked the jury for a conviction of murder in the first degree. At the close of the arguments Judge Belden charged the jury, which then retired.

Carpenters Order Twelve Strikes.
Indianapolis, July 16.—There were twelve strikes ordered by the national executive committee of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. The financial report showed that during the past quarter $11,569 was expended in support of strikes and $125,864 was taken from the disability fund for the benefit of unfortunate members.

RACING AT OYSTER BAY

Four Crews of Naval Yacht Sylph Contest for Prizes Offered by President.

DINNER SERVED IN FORECASTLE

President and Mrs. Roosevelt Guests of Enlisted Men—Chief Executive Delivers Brief Speech, Which Is Received With Enthusiasm.

Oyster Bay, July 16.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt, together with Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw and a large party of relatives and friends, were enthusiastically interested witnesses of a boat race on Oyster Bay. The contestants were four crews of three men each selected from the enlisted men of the naval yacht Sylph. All were trained oarsmen, and spurred by the knowledge that the eyes of the president were upon them every one of the 12 brawny sailormen worked in the race as if his life depended upon his efforts.

The race was the idea of the Roosevelt children. It appealed strongly to the president. Through Lieutenant Preston, commander of the Sylph, the arrangements were perfected. The enlisted men on the Sylph and the children whose race it was to be entered with enthusiasm into all the details.

As the Sylph has no boats suitable for racing, the children tendered the sailors the use of their boats, four beautiful, pair-oared cedar skiffs.

The president added a substantial prize to the contest by offering a prize of $35, $25 of which should go to the winning crew and $10 to the second crew.

Race Was Interesting.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the president and Mrs. Roosevelt and Secretary Shaw, accompanied by 17 Roosevelt children, including the president's six children, embarked in launches and were taken to the Sylph. Scarcely had the party boarded the yacht when the contesting crews tumbled into their boats. A launch, commanded by Ensign Hamlin, in which were Miss Alice Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and his cousin, George Roosevelt, towed the boats to the starting point, a mile and a quarter due southeast of the Sylph. It was an ideal afternoon, cool and bracing, but as the wind was about nine knots the bay was a bit rough for fancy rowing.

At the crack of a pistol fired by Theodore the oars struck the water as one and the boats were off. For a hundred yards it was a pretty even race, but No. 1 gradually drew ahead and never afterward was in danger.

President Roosevelt greeted the members of the crew cordially as they went aboard the Sylph, shaking hands and saying a kindly word to each one. Then he presented the prizes to the crews of the winning and second crews. Soon afterward the president and his party left the Sylph for Sagamore hill.

Dined With Enlisted Men.
The president and Mrs. Roosevelt dined on board the Sylph as the guests of the enlisted men. The invitation to the dinner was extended to them through the vessel's commander, Lieutenant Preston, and was accepted gladly both by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt. At the conclusion of the dinner, which was served in the forecastle, the president delivered a brief talk to the men.

He desired them to realize fully, he said, that as Theodore Roosevelt and as president of the United States he had a warm personal interest in them.

WHO KNOWS

When His Kidney Trouble Has Fastened and Reached the Chronic Stage? If It Has It Is Incurable by Anything Known Except the Fulton Compounds. We Are The Sole Agents.

As an evidence of the unusual character of the Fulton Compounds that company does not publish or invite testimonials except those reporting recoveries in kidney diseases that have reached the chronic stage, alleged to be incurable. Here is another recovery in a case incurable till the advent of the Fulton Compounds, reported by John & Johnson, the agents of the Fulton Compounds in Los Gatos:

W. H. Fridley, a resident of Los Gatos, having chronic kidney disease (Bright's Disease) had, like everybody else, found all treatment futile. He commenced on Fulton's Renal Compound in February, 1902, and on December 10 of the same year reported the total disappearance of the disease. He writes that he has gained fifteen pounds in weight and is again able to do a good hard day's work. John & Johnson, the Los Gatos druggists, confirm this recovery and know of several other recoveries in similar cases of chronic kidney disease in Los Gatos, all of which were incurable by anything else known to druggists. S. A. Palmer, the leading druggist of Santa Cruz, H. H. Maynard, the Pelamula druggist, the Ferry Drug Company of No. 8 Market street, San Francisco, W. R. Pond, the Berkeley druggist, Dr. Markley, the Cleveland druggist, Willis & Martin, the Sacramento druggists, and scores of other California druggists all report specific recoveries in chronic kidney diseases that were positively incurable by anything known except the Fulton Compounds.

Dropsy, rheumatism from uric acid, gout and bladder troubles are proofs that the kidneys are not performing their functions. The chronic stage of kidney trouble is Bright's Disease. If you feel languid or miserable, if your kidney trouble hangs on and for Pamphlet, Percentage of recoveries nearly 90 per cent among purely chronic cases. WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

A CRY FOR NOVELTY.

In clay building there are certain type forms which are the natural outcome of the material. It would be absurd to contend that the Indian women copied the ancient British, and yet many pieces are very similar, though produced thousands of miles apart. In like manner, many a piece has been made, in a modern studio, which closely resembles the work of the past, but without the maker ever having seen that which he is accused of copying. It is not to be expected that anyone, before sitting down to shape his clay, shall institute a search in every available quarter, in order that he may not trespass upon any pre-existing forms. No such thought was present to hamper and cripple the enterprise of long ago. The Egyptian, the Greek, the Chinaman, and the Indian, each expressed himself in his material, and it is unfair to deny a similar privilege to the workers of today.

The modern manufacturer is persecuted by the cry for novelty. The senseless demand for new things, new shapes, new colors, new designs, has resulted, on the one hand, in an indiscriminate use of old shapes with some slight change to justify a different name, and, on the other, in the production of certain outrageous objects which may, fortunately, claim to be new. Such things are always new, for they never live long enough to grow old; whereas, the precious productions of ancient time live among men as literature lives. They cannot die, for the world cannot do without them.

GOES TO PEORIA.

Fred Pennington, well known in the western district, has accepted a position with the Crown Pottery company, of Peoria, and will leave for that city next Friday. Mr. Pennington has been prominent in local labor circles, having served with credit in trades council and as one of the directors of the co-operative store. He has also served several terms as secretary of the packers local No. 25. He will take charge of the packing sheds of the Peoria plant.

REASON FOR DELAY.

It is given as the reason for the postponement of the conference between the Brotherhood and manufacturers' committees, that neither side was ready for the arrangement of the final details of the new wage scale. The Brotherhood committee has worked hard to master every detail of the proposition of the manufacturers and a great amount of investigating work has been necessary. The postponement of the conference has no effect upon the present conditions.

NOW INCORPORATED.

The American Kaolin company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $500,000 for the purpose of mining clay and manufacturing pottery, china, etc. The company was incorporated by E. F. Whittum, as president, and

The deal has not been closed yet, but is expected to be the latter part of this week. The company is also testing clays at Point Richmond, Cal., suitable for the manufacture of pottery.

CITIZEN OBJECTS TO STATEMENTS

Made Before Council By Mr. Bullock Concerning the Library Appropriation.

Editor News Review—I want to take exceptions to Mr. Bullock's statement to council that the people voted only in favor of $3,000 for the Carnegie library and no more, for they would be a set of dummies, indeed, to think that the library for all time to come must be run on $3,000 a year no matter what increase in patronage it might have or the demands made upon it.

Mr. Carnegie said: "If you will agree to provide at least $3,000 a year I will give you $50,000." The people said, "We accept your offer."

Now, neither the people nor Mr. Carnegie said: "You shall not provide for more than $3,000." On the contrary, both knew the day would come when the library could not exist on $3,000 a year.

Let me call Mr. Bullock's and council's attention to an act of theirs this week. They provided $1,200 for the Thompson park, and rightly, too. Mr. Thompson in his gift stipulated that the city should provide at least $1,000 a year, just as Mr. Carnegie provided for at least $3,000 a year. Now, why hot and cold in the same evening?

If Mr. Bullock and council are opposed to the principles of a free library be honest enough to say so frankly and let the 100,000 who attended the library last year know it. The paltry $300 taken from the library levy would have added that many books to the shelves the coming year and been of great help to the institution, but I doubt if the same which was added to the city's funds will "cut much ice," as the boys say.

Mr. Editor, I have not the honor to be on the library board and hence am not interested, but I am a citizen-taxpayer, ashamed of the attitude we as a community are placed in by the action of council, crippling as it does the educational facilities of our city.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me: I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, I've given me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. These tablets surely do make one feel joyful."

THE ELKS' VISIT TO NEW CASTLE

How the Trip and the Visitors Were Sized Up by a Paper of That City.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT

And a Good Base Ball Game Features of the Enjoyable Event—The Program of the Day And Evening And How It Was Carried Out.

In their endeavor to cause the East Liverpool Elks to depart for their homes Tuesday night feeling that New Castle was the most hospitable place they ever visited, the local Elks, whose guests they were, did well. They were here for a whole day, says the New Castle News, and the New Castle brethren saw that not a lull in the way of entertainment occurred.

Good fellowship and conviviality was at a high ebb during the entire proceedings. The common brotherhood of man and the duties toward each other were exemplified on this occasion, for they form the very foundation upon which the principles of the order are built.

The East Liverpool delegation, numbering about 60, arrived in the city shortly before noon. They were met at the depot by the reception committee and escorted to the club rooms of the Elks, where they rested and exchanged greetings with the local members, while E. M. Wier, steward of the club and his competent force of assistants were finishing the preparation for the elegant repast. However, before lunch, the visitors were taken in special cars over the lines of the traction company so that they could see the beauties of our city, with which they were favorably impressed.

The purpose of the visit, however, was to play a game of ball with the New Castle Elks and the strangers were amazed to learn the statement upon their departure that charity and brotherly love had prompted the local lodge at a meeting held last Saturday to pass a resolution to let the East Liverpool club win the game by one run.

However, the East Liverpool players held that justice on the part of the umpire and fidelity of the players to their team, are responsible for their victory.

Therefore, justice, charity, brotherly love and fidelity, the four principles of the order mingled in the hearts of the New Castle and East Liverpool Elks.

The contest was a good one and the account of it is interesting. When the game was over all repaired to the spacious club rooms again, where they had dinner. The comfortable quarters of the local lodge were made even more inviting by the addition of special decorations for the event, and the energies of Mr. Wier and his force were directed after dinner in arranging for the stag social which was held at night. The rooms were trimmed in purple and white, mingled with stars and stripes. Potted plants and flowers adorned the rooms, and banqueting tables, which presented a pleasing sight.

The East Liverpool Elks, together with about 200 of the local members, sat down about 10 o'clock, when S. S. Hamilton introduced Past Exalted Ruler William R. Garvin, as toastmaster of the evening, who in that capacity was right at home. Then followed toasts and addresses from talented members from both lodges, some teeming with wit and humor, while others were expressions of appreciation on the part of the visiting brothers for the entertainment extended to them at the hands of the New Castle lodge. Parsons' orchestra was present and rendered excellent music.

Mayor John C. Jackson delivered the address of welcome in a few well chosen words and was followed by Senator Blake, of East Liverpool, whose remarks rang with expressions of gratitude, interspersed with humorous digression. George E. Davidson, Esq., city solicitor of East Liverpool, did so well when called upon for a toast, that he was prevailed upon to sing, which he did in a pleasing way. When he finished, Toastmaster Garvin announced that it was the hour of 11, at which time a toast to absent brothers is given, and he called upon Attorney B. A. Winternitz to respond to "Our Absent Brothers." The toastmaster referred to him as one whom they all knew could propose the toast in an able and eloquent manner. This was an impressive feature of the evening, and Mr. Winternitz in well clothed language expressed the significance of the occasion. Dr. J. Howard Davis, one of the visiting brothers, was called upon and made a few happy remarks. He was followed by Hugh Hamill, of East Liverpool, with a fine solo. Then the inimitable Michael Graham, of this city, was prevailed upon to render one of his characteristic songs. Mr. Gleason, of Pittsburg, spoke for a time in an amusing way, and the visiting Elks left for their special train at the Pennsylvania depot, accompanied by a large number of the local men, after singing "Auld Lang Syne." A pressing invitation was extended the local Elks to again visit East Liverpool before the ball season closes.

DEMURRERS

COURT DECIDES A NUMBER OF KNOTTY PROBLEMS.

Sister Charges Her Brother With Fraud in Settling Their Mother's Estate.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—In common pleas court yesterday afternoon Judge Hole passed upon a few more demurrers.

In the case of Florence Cumberland, of Hanover township, versus William C. Wright, of Toledo, and the American Surety company, of New York, a demurrer holding that the facts set forth were not sufficient cause of action against the surety company was sustained. This is a suit brought by Mrs. Cumberland, as a legatee of the estate of her mother, Mary A. Creighton, against her brother, William C. Wright, individually and as administrator of their mother's estate. The plaintiff alleges her brother induced her to sign a receipt for $189.53 as her share in her mother's estate and afterwards paid her only $35. By further fraud and deceit he is alleged to have had his final accounting approved in probate court and to have secured his release as administrator, at the same time by false representation preventing the filing of bill of exceptions by his sister until the expiration of the statutory limit. The surety company was made a defendant on the ground that the condition of the bond had been broken. The court held that there is sufficient cause for action against Wright.

A decree for the defendant was entered in the case of Elihu Simpson, of Salineville, versus Duffield Simpson et al., which was submitted to the court some time ago. In this case the plaintiff sued for the partition of a house and lot in Salineville, and the defendant set up that they were the owners of the entire house and lot by virtue of a deed from the mother of the litigant, to whom the will of her husband gave the property for life, with the right to dispose of it if necessary for her support.

In the partition case of Norman M. May versus Benjamin Trimble et al., of Salem, a demurrer to the answer was overruled, but Judge Hole held that this does not dispose of the merits of the action and reserved the right to determine the real question between the parties if the case is tried before him.

In the case of George Rice versus F. J. Neigh et al., J. M. Dickinson as assignee is substituted as plaintiff. Likewise in the case of George Rice versus Henry Rice and others.

In the case of Eden Reeder versus Peter Woodward et al., leave is given to answer by August 1.

No Court Until Monday.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—Court adjourned last evening until next Monday, when Judge Ambler, of Canton, will occupy the bench. The jury has been ordered to report Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Judge Hole will preside for the final assignments arranged for a week from next Monday.

If 75 subscribers can be secured the branch will be started and 200 books will be placed in Wilson's drug store. Each fortnight 45 books are to be returned to headquarters and a similar number of new ones received. The membership fee for the first year is $1.50 and for each succeeding year $1.

The Booklovers' and Tabard Inn libraries are now under the same management and both are known over the entire country. The agent is having little difficulty in securing subscribers and in all probability the branch will be established.

Looking for New Quarters.

The Ivy club, composed of about 15 well known East End young men, has vacated its club rooms in Oakland and negotiations are on for quarters in the new Foutts building on Mulberry street. One suite of rooms in the Foutts building has been leased to the Ben Hur band.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Huxford, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain she was formerly troubled with."

ROCK SPRINGS THEATRE

May Get the First Engagement of Miss Shay's Novel Production.

Negotiations are now on whereby Miss Ruth Shay's Choir Transformation may appear at the Rock Springs theater for one week some time during the present season. The piece is a new thing and is bound to go. If the deal is closed with Manager McCollum, the friends of Mr. Shay in this city will be given an opportunity to see the opening engagement of the production right at home. Several thousand dollars has been spent by the projectors of the enterprise in equipping it for the road. The scenery is fine and the musical feature is unsurpassed.

A Woman's Complexion.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment, as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New size trial bottle, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists.

POLICE VICTORIOUS

Desperate Battle With Mob in Streets of Chicago Against Great Odds.

WATCHMAN FIRES INTO CROWD

Precipitating All Kinds of Trouble. Futile Efforts of Strikers to Stop Delivery of Freight—Score of Arrests Made.

Chicago, July 16.—Desperate fighting between the police and the strikers of the Kellogg Switchboard company took place when the company attempted to send freight to some of the railroad depots. In one instance the police opened fire with revolvers, and although the fusillade was continued for several minutes nobody was injured. Later there was a fight in which no revolvers were used and the police laid out a number of men, some of whom were left in the street until their friends came back and picked them up.

Police Fire on Workmen.

The first fight occurred when a truck loaded with freight escorted by police bound for the Burlington depot was passing an unfinished building at the corner of Harrison and Peoria streets. A howling mob of a thousand men and boys was following the police and pelting them with stones and sticks. Teamsters who sympathized with the strikers managed to get their wagon in the way of the Kellogg company's wagon as it reached Peoria street and occasioned a blockade. The police were endeavoring to clear the street, when the workmen on the unfinished building showered them with bricks.

The officers at once drew their revolvers and fired at the workmen, who hastily fled to the interior of the building. The police kept up their fire through the windows and drove nearly all the workmen from the place. The route to the depot was then taken up, and although there were several blockades the wagon reached the depot and the goods were delivered.

The second fight occurred when the police were escorting a wagonload of freight to the warehouse of the Terminal Transfer company at Ogden avenue and Twelfth street. A mob fully 2,000 strong followed this wagon and although the police were outnumbered a hundred to one they took the wagon safely to the depot. The mob had greatly increased by the time the wagon was ready to make the return trip, and for half a mile it pursued the police, applying to them all sorts of epithets and pelting them with sticks and stones, without, however, injuring any person seriously.

Mob Charges on Police.

The climax came at Congress street and Ogden avenue, when a private watchman, who had no particular call to mix in the trouble on either side, fired at one of the mob. The shot went wild, but it inflamed the mob to the highest degree, and with shouts and yells they charged down on the police. The latter were waiting for the crowd and when it arrived the officers went at it with fists and clubs. They were greatly outnumbered, but they fought well together, and in less than three minutes every member of the mob who could use his feet was doing so to the best of his ability. Fully a dozen men with broken heads were left lying in the street where they had been knocked by the clubs of the officers. Some of them were loaded into the wagon and taken to the police station, as were a number who were not quick enough in commencing their retreat. About 20 arrests were made during the day.

The Kellogg company announces that it will continue to send out freight every day and the strikers say that they will use every means to prevent their doing so.

At all the depots where freight was delivered the freight handlers refused to unload any of the wagons and the work was done by special men employed by the company.

The strike, which has now been in progress for a month, was ordered by the unions because the company refused to sign an agreement to employ union men exclusively. The questions of wages and hours were agreed upon by both sides, but the company refused to force its non-union men into the organization.

A communication in another column calls attention to the fact that unnecessary and unseemly haggling is going on in council over the appropriation for Carnegie library for the coming year. The difference between the amount recommended by the tax commission and the amount at which Councilman Bullock seeks to fix the appropriation is only $300. The tax commission is composed of gentlemen who are familiar with the needs of the library and also with the financial affairs of the city. They are quite as astute and able financiers as Councilman Bullock, to say the least, and why his recommendation should carry more weight than theirs it is impossible to conceive. If it were proposed to save $3,000 or $5,000, the matter would be worth considering, but where only the paltry sum of $300 is concerned, since experience has demonstrated that the money is needed, there is no excuse for such a cheese-paring policy. Economy in public expenditures is wise and necessary; niggardiness is neither wise nor politic. If it is necessary to cut some appropriation $300 there are funds that can bear the reduction vastly better than that of the library. There has been no extravagance in the management of that institution, but instead the utmost carefulness and caution. Yet it has been demonstrated that the minimum appropriation of $3,000 is barely sufficient to run the library, and leave practically nothing for the purchase of new books or for the replacing of old and worn-out volumes. It is simple folly to cripple the usefulness of a noble institution in its infancy for the sake of $300 which is quite likely to be wasted somewhere else. The time will come as the city grows when the library cannot be maintained and kept abreast of the times on the $3,000 which Mr. Carnegie fixed as the minimum of annual expenditure. The absurdity of the proposition that the appropriation can not legally exceed that figure is apparent to every one. Three hundred dollars means much to the library and very little to the city. Council should not listen to the penny-wise-and-pound-foolish argument that the library fund is the one to cut. East Liverpool has always been liberal in appropriations for its educational institutions, and the library, fast assuming a place among the grandest of them, should not be made to suffer simply because a councilman seeks a cheap method of gaining notoriety as an economist.

Although it is almost two weeks since the Fourth of July the celebration of that day still continues to furnish items for the newspapers and business for physicians and cornerers. The effects of the deadly toy pistol are still being felt, as is attested by the list of deaths from lockjaw recorded daily in all the large cities. There is scarcely a town of any importance in the country that has not added one or more victims to the melancholy chapter, and the harvest of death is likely to continue for some weeks yet. All this terrible waste of human life—the victims being largely children—is needless and wantonly reckless. It should arouse public sentiment and compel legislatures and city councils to enact measures that will relegate the death-dealing toy pistol to the same category as other destructive agencies and sternly forbid its sale and use. The law kills mad dogs and restricts the sale of poisons. Yet here is a so-called plaything that causes more misery and more deaths than both, and as yet scarcely anything has been done to interfere with its baleful work. It is high time that the press, the pulpit and other reform agencies began an agitation that shall continue until the toy pistol has been put out of business.

If, as seems apparent, the object of the amended ordinance regarding the police force is to legislate Chief of Police Wyman out of office, council should seriously consider the step it is asked to take before acting. Mayor Weaver is the executive head of the city of East Liverpool and responsible to the whole city for its government and the enforcement of its laws. He has shown a disposition to be fair and just, and it would be a serious mistake to tie his hands or to force him to select a chief of police whom he does not want or one with whom he cannot work in perfect agreement. Chief of Police Wyman is an experienced officer, as well as one who is strong and capable. He is the man whom the mayor chose to assist him in preserving order in the city and in suppressing lawlessness, and there is no good reason yet adduced for legislating him out of office. His position is one that is difficult to fill, and changes in a place of such importance, after it is once well filled, ought not to be encouraged.

ident Horwell asked for remarks. The only member replying was Smith, the councilman from the East End. He said that he could not understand the action of his brother members; that they could not be in favor of the alteration if they wanted to give the people protection and that he would never vote for the passage of the ordinance. The president then demanded a vote and it resulted as follows: For the passage of the ordinance—Croxall, Bullock, Moon and Johnston. Against the passage—Smith.

Mayor Weaver was present when the work was done but had nothing to say until the body adjourned. He then got into a lively conversation with Croxall. He asked him why such action was taken and the councilman was in hard straits to discover an answer. He finally said, however, that it was done because the board of public safety had asked for a night watchman and that council thought the request should be granted. He maintained that the extra man together with 8 patrolmen and a chief would make the expense too heavy for the people. The mayor was so angry that it was impossible for him to restrain from retaliation and he scored the councilman in many expressive epithets.

In conversation with a reporter of the News Review regarding the council action, Mayor Weaver said: "It was the working of low-down politics. There is not one of the members of council who voted for the passage of that ordinance who can justify himself before the eyes of our best citizens. I feel that it is a direct blow at the success of my administration. I have no desire other than to see that the city shall be orderly and decent and I would certainly insist on the affairs being conducted in a business-like and proper manner. The action cannot be justified on the grounds of economy. There is no one who will insist that we have a sufficient supply of police in the city. The continuous clamor is for additional officers. The aim of the whole thing in a nutshell is to get Chief Wyman out of office. I don't believe that there is any class opposed to Wyman, except the gamblers, saloonkeepers and law-breakers, the honorable members of council to the contrary notwithstanding.

"The action taken by council was dirty, low and contemptible, and I don't believe there is a man among them who voted in favor of the ordinance who can look me straight in the eye and give a plausible excuse for the action. "I don't know exactly what my recourse is, but I don't propose to let the work of four men such as voted in the affirmative last night have any influence on my action. I do propose to employ the highest authority, and if Wyman is knocked out it will only be after a hard battle."

made acquainted with the circumstances and asked to take some action. The grievance committee of the council will also give the matter some consideration.

A communication had been received from the San Francisco central labor union some time ago, which was of very great importance to the workers of the country. Matters of the utmost importance would be up for consideration at the meeting of the A. F. of L. when it meets in Boston next November, and the communication urged that the local council send a delegate to the meeting. As has been customary until last year the council, by vote, decided to have representation at the next session of the federation.

A report was made on the condition of the co-operative store. It had been determined to change the system of doing business somewhat, and the directors deemed it wise to acquaint the council, which was the father of the institution, with the details of the new plan. The business is in good condition, and with the inauguration of the new and more modern system, it was confidently expected the concern would be more prosperous than ever.

Which Is Foolish? Which Is Wise?

You are paying $15.00 a month rent; your neighbor is paying $15.00 a month on his property. In ten years you will have 120 rent receipts representing $1800.00 of your hard earned money. Your neighbor will have a deed free and clear from all encumbrances for his home worth perhaps $2500.00. You paid $1800.00 out and have nothing. He paid $1800.00 out and owns his home which meanwhile has grown in value. He has $2500.00 to his credit in property; you have nothing. You earned $3.00 per day. He earned $3.00 per day. You had a wife and family. He had a wife and family. You had sickness of yourself and family. He had sickness of himself and family. You had no work part of the time. He had no work part of the time. You had to meet your $15.00 rent monthly. He had to meet his $15.00 payment monthly. Had you failed to have paid your rent you would have been ejected. Had he failed to make his payments he would have taken advantage of the Grace in his Contract.

CLIMAX REACHED IN THE STRUGGLE

Dallas Pittenger Sues for His Salary as Janitor of City Building.

The climax has been reached in the struggle between council and the board of public service for control of the city building, the matter having been taken into the court of Justice Riley for an airing by Dallas Pittenger, who sues for his salary as janitor of the building. He was appointed by the board of public service, but council has steadfastly refused to appropriate money for the payment of his services on the ground that it would be a useless expenditure, as the janitor work has been done heretofore by the city building policeman. Nothing daunted Pittenger continued to do the work and several times presented his bill for payment. It was turned down with the regularity of clock work, and on Wednesday afternoon Pittenger brought suit, through his attorney, F. L. Jones, in 'Squire Riley's court, for $59.51, the amount claimed due him for 10 days in May and all of June.

The hearing has been set for Saturday, July 25, and the outcome will be watched with the deepest interest by the taxpayers generally.

Pittenger and the city building policeman, William Elliott, have both been on duty at the building. Elliott looks after Mayor Fogo's office and the city jail. One morning not long ago Pittenger went into the mayor's office for the purpose of cleaning it up and was ordered to stay out. He was given distinctly to understand that he had no business whatever there in the capacity of janitor, and since that time he has confined his work to the other parts of the building.

Whatever may be the decision of 'Squire Riley there is sure to be an appeal to the common pleas court. City Solicitor Boyd is sanguine that the city can successfully resist payment of Pittenger's claim and believes council did right in refusing to pay him.

The fight will be one to the finish and the first round in the 'squire's court is eagerly awaited.

REORGANIZATION OF FIRE LADS

New Officers And New Equipment Are Promised the Department.

Fire Chief Phillips has called a general meeting of the three companies at the city hall hose house for tomorrow night when three captains, three lieutenants and a secretary and treasurer will be elected. The re-organization will be thorough in every particular, the intention being to make the department strictly up-to-date.

Considerable new hose and other appliances are being purchased and as soon as possible a horse and wagon will be purchased for the West End hose house. It is often a very difficult matter to find a ready horse at night for that portion of the city, and the upturn companies invariably reach the scene of fire first on account of that lack and hindrance in the West End.

It is proposed to make the West End hose wagon a police patrol also, as something of that kind has long been needed here. There is talk of an automobile patrol, but nothing definite has yet been decided upon in that regard.

NEARLY BURIED ALIVE

A Plumber Had a Close Call from Being Overwhelmed And Crushed.

While working in a six-foot trench at the Whitaker block yesterday afternoon Thomas Wilkinson, a plumber, came near being buried alive as the result of the trench caving in. Fortunately he was standing when the dirt closed in around him and his neck and head were not covered.

Wilkinson has an impediment of speech and it was some time before he succeeded in summoning help. Some bricklayers heard his cries and rescued him after 20 minutes hard work. He was not injured in the least.

New York Wants Third Bridge.

New York, July 16.—The board of estimate and apportionment unanimously reappropriated $6,533,000 for the usage of Manhattan bridge (No. 3) over the East river between Manhattan and Brooklyn. This is the appropriation defeated Tuesday by the board of aldermen. This action sends the proposition back to the aldermen. The appropriation cannot be made if a majority of the board of aldermen again vote against it. But if such adverse vote is not had within six weeks the bonds may be issued under the action of the charter providing for such a contingency.

White Woman Assaulted by Negro.

Coffeyville, Kan., July 16.—Mrs. Maud Walker, a young white woman, was assaulted by Bud Scipio, a negro. She was called to her door by the negro and forcibly taken to a field a mile away. Her injuries were severe, but she managed to return to town and tell her story. The negro escaped into Indian territory. A posse of citizens is in pursuit, intent on lynching Scipio.

SOUTH SIDE

A HUGE CASSER ON HADLEY FARM

CHESTER OIL & GAS COMPANY'S BIG STRIKE.

Preparations Being Hastened for the Development of the Entire Territory of 500 Acres.

The wildest excitement prevailed in Chester this morning when Isaac Clark, one of the drillers, arrived in town with the information that a heavy pressure of gas had been struck at the first well put down by the Chester Oil & Gas company, and that the men at work had experienced great difficulty in keeping the tools in the well, so strong was the force of the gas.

Clark was so flustered by the sudden find that he was able to give but a meager account of the affair, and in a very few minutes several hack loads of stockholders in the company were on their way to the field. Some of the parties returned just before noon and from them it was learned that the gas came in when the well was at a depth of only about 700 feet and before the sand had been reached. The fact is an unusual one and is taken by the interested parties to mean that the well will be a permanent one.

Supt. Wells and the other practical men made preparations at once for the handling of the gas. A man was sent to Pittsburg for the cap and other necessary supplies to seal up the hole. When this has been done steps will be taken to develop the remainder of the territory. An attempt will be made to ascertain the exact amount of pressure there is in the well before it is capped.

The well is located on the Edward Hadley farm, and is thought to be a good one. The Chester Oil & Gas company was but recently organized, and is made up of Chester and East Liverpool parties. Their lease consists of about 500 acres of very promising territory. Two other wells have not yet been located by the experts, the work will be started at once. The drillers will begin the preparation for a move at once, and it is expected that the second well will be started within a few days. Meantime the stockholders in the company are considering the advisability of taking up more territory.

GOOD PROGRESS

Is Being Made By the Chester Street Department With the Street Paving.

The work of paving the principal thoroughfares in Chester is being pushed as fast as the weather and the limited force of workmen will permit. Carolina avenue is nearly completed for its entire length, and the work is well under way on Virginia avenue.

The management of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs railway has been keeping up with the city in the laying of bricks between the rails on those streets over which the tracks are laid, and at some points are entirely through with their share of the improvement.

A vast sum of money is being spent by the city in putting down the pavements, but it is calculated the residents will be amply repaid.

M'GRAW AT LARGE

A Report to That Effect Is Sent Out from New Cumberland Today.

Word was received in Chester this morning that Terry McGraw, the desperate character who gave the authorities so much trouble a few weeks ago when an attempt was made to arrest him, had been released from the New Cumberland jail. The report could not be confirmed, but much indignation was expressed that such a thing should even be hinted at.

McGraw, it will be remembered, had a fight on an excursion train en route from Pittsburg to Rock Springs, and Conductor Conley was terribly beaten. McGraw continued his carousal at the park and was arrested. Justice Pugh bound him over to court at the preliminary hearing and he has been in the New Cumberland jail ever since.

The information brought to Chester said that McGraw had raised $50 with which to secure his release, and that the bond had been lowered to accommodate his pile. The thug claimed he could beat the Chester people if the case came to trial, since the fight had occurred in Pennsylvania, and he could not be prosecuted in this state. The assault on the conductor was the only charge against McGraw, and it is supposed the New Cumberland authorities deemed it wise to take no risk so let him go.

CHESTER NOTES.

Unusual activity is noticed at the Chester freight station. Large consignments of oak lumber, sewer pipe and brick are being unloaded in the yards and the vicinity has the appearance of one of the large cities. A large amount of wool is being shipped from this point, and the loading process requires the services of many men.

S. Cooper, who has been confined to his home on Carolina avenue for some time with consumption, was somewhat improved yesterday and was able to go to the country for a short visit.

A. V. Thompson, of Pittsburg, is in Chester today on business.

R. G. Dunn is contemplating a trip to Mt. Clemens, Mich., for the benefit of his health.

Edgar Ewing was in Pittsburg yesterday on business.

The Simpson M. E. Sunday school is picnicking at Rock Springs park today. About 600 of the members are present and a pleasant time is being spent.

BURNING RUBBISH WILL BE STOPPED

The Mayor Determined to Stop the Building of Bonfires in the City.

Mayor Weaver announced this morning that he intends to rigidly enforce the ordinance regulating the burning of paper and rubbish within the limits of the city. During the past few days several complaints have been filed at central station and in two instances the violators of the ordinance have placed property in danger of destruction.

One resident reported this morning that a man living next to him had been making a practice of burning papers near his (the former's) barn. The mayor informed the complainant that he could have the violator arrested, but he did not wish to do that until the warning was given.

CONDITION IS GRAVE

POPE LEO DYING OF OLD AGE

Science Can Only Assist in Prolonging Precious Existence—Motor Force No Longer Sufficient—Patient Assisted With Stimulants.

London, July 16.—A dispatch from Rome, timed 6:50 a. m., says the pope passed a very restless night and his condition this morning is considerably worse.

Rome, July 16.—3:05 a. m.—The beginning of the second part of the night was somewhat restless and Dr. Lapponi tried to assist the patient with stimulants and nourishment.

Rome, July 16.—Dr. Mazzoni, in reply to the question, "Can the pope recover?" gave the Associated Press correspondent the following signed statement:

"Rome, via Condotti, 9 July 15.—At the present moment the disease of his holiness has lost its character of absolute gravity which it had at its acute period. It might be considered to have entered the period of possible solution. This might occur in a man of strong fiber and young, but it is impossible to entertain such a hope in the case of a man in his 94th year. With him the physical energy absolutely indispensable for recovery is lacking. Pope Leo's organism is perfect and as such maintains itself after 93 years of never interrupted work, but his motor force is no longer sufficient for the complex functions essential to life. In other words, the 93 years of Pope Leo brings him into that category of extraordinary longevity when life is destined to flicker out independent of the action of any pathological complication. The only service that science and affection can render is that of struggling to have this precious existence preserved to us as long as possible.

"GAETANI MAZZONI." Ravages Wrought by Disease.

One of the doctors in attendance on the pontiff gave the Associated Press correspondent a graphic but horrible word picture of Pope Leo as he appears today. That smile which lighted up the pontiff's face, even in extreme age, has disappeared, probably forever. The skin is drawn tightly over the bony framework of his face, leaving the once bright eyes staring dimly from the deeply sunken sockets. A grayish pallor overspreads his countenance, but the most noticeable ravage wrought by his present disease is the dropping of the lower jaw, which has made the pope's features take on the fixed rigidity of death.

Throughout the day the precincts of the vatican were comparatively quiet, and the immediate vicinity of the sick room showed none of the evidences of agitation and alarm so apparent Tuesday. In marked contrast to previous days the patient was kept in almost absolute seclusion, only one person besides the physicians in immediate attendance gaining admission. This one was Monsignor Piffieri, the pope's confessor. Others came to the ante-chamber, including Cardinals Satolli and Serafino Vannutelli, but they did not press for admission to the sick room, being aware of the doctors' earnest wish to afford the august patient every opportunity of avoiding exertion and mental effort.

During the day the pope took a slight amount of nourishment. Through this morning he was quite restless, shifting uneasily on his bed and complaining of being unable to secure an easy position. Later he became drowsy and during the afternoon had some sleep. The assembling of the doctors at 5:30 o'clock, two hours before the usual time, was not due to any alarming turn in the pope's condition, but through the wish thoroughly to go over every detail of the situation.

His Holiness Still Hopeful.

The moderate tone of the bulletin which followed the visit gave an assurance that the patient's condition was practically unchanged, while the expression that the depression of his strength had not increased afforded a slight note of relief.

In the evening his holiness complained of a slight uneasiness in the chest, but that he has not yet completely given up hope was indicated by his remark that he expected the oppression of his chest to pass off in a few days. During the day the pope drank a few drops of the healing waters from the shrine of Lourdes, several bottles of which were sent to the vatican by the French bishop in whose see Lourdes is situated.

A local paper gravely announced that from the moment Pope Leo swallowed the water an improvement in his condition became apparent.

Strenuous Life of Physicians.

The doctors are well nigh exhausted with their unceasing cares. Dr. Lapponi in particular spends his entire nights as well as days in the sick room. Just before midnight his wife

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Will Often Help You Greatly—Read What An East Liverpool Citizen Says.

You may hesitate to listen to the advice of strangers, but the testimony of residents of East Liverpool is worth your most careful attention. It is an easy matter to investigate such proof as this. The evidence must be conclusive. Read the following:

Mr. W. P. Cochran, of Mulberry street, East End, says: "At intervals for 30 years I had serious kidney and bladder trouble. The agony I went through can hardly be described. Many nights I rolled from one side to another trying to find an easy position for my back; I could not move without having sharp twinges of pain and I was also troubled with urinary difficulty, the secretions being very irregular, and at times very distressing. I ran down so that I could hardly help myself. Doctors treated me. I took a power of stuff and had given up all hope when I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised as a never failing remedy. I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy and after taking half of it I could see some improvement. I continued, and the treatment did me more good than anything I ever used."

wishing to see him, went to the vatican. She was taken to a corridor near the sick room, where she saw her husband for a few minutes. An important case now before the British consular court in Rome requires the presence of Dr. Lapponi, but this is impossible because of the pope's condition and also because the vatican affords extra territorial privileges to all within its precincts.

The total number of dispatches inquiring about the pope's health received at the vatican during the day reached 25,000, including some lengthy cables from half round the world.

The total cost of these telegrams is estimated at $36,000. This enormous deluge of the vatican administration. A large force of priests and seminarians is temporarily aiding the officials in making responses, which bear the signature of Cardinal Rampolla.

American Ideas to Play Leading Part.

Paris, July 16.—A dispatch from Rome is published here giving an interview with a monsignor who is a friend of the United States. He said that if a number of cardinals favorable to Cardinal Gibbons had not died lately the American cardinal would have had a good chance of being elected. He will have a great influence at the conclave and the authority which Cardinal Gibbons will exercise will probably pave the way to a more just representation of the United States on the sacred college, which will bear fruit at the next conclave.

Even now, asserted the monsignor, the Catholics of the republic of the United States will not permit a monarchical nation to intervene with her veto. American ideas will play a leading part from the very beginning at the coming conclave and it is sure that these ideas will have a most powerful influence on the future destinies of the church of Rome.

DETAILS WILL BE SUPPRESSED

Publication of Suicide Stories Believed to Influence Others in Taking Their Own Lives.

Cleveland, July 16.—Coroner Burke says he will make an attempt to suppress details in the cases of all suicides.

"The publication of suicide stories under glaring headlines, giving every detail of the crime," said the coroner, "is most harmful to the public at large and is the direct cause of so many suicides. I have noticed that when a suicide by carbolic acid is printed a number of suicides immediately follow, all taking their lives in the same manner. The same may be said of a suicide by shooting or any other ways that are more commonly employed.

"The minds of a great many people are very easily influenced and the reports published by the newspapers setting forth the whole life of the suicide so works upon the minds of some people that for mere notoriety they take their own life. This may in a measure account for the large number of suicides for which no reason for the act can be learned."

Coroner Burke said he would confer with the managing editors of the local press and ask their co-operation in his efforts to carry out his idea.

Knapp's Fate in Jury's Hands.

Hamilton, O., July 16.—The Alfred A. Knapp wife murder case is in the hands of the jury. Lawyer Thomas Derby made his closing argument, pleading that Knapp was insane and not responsible. Prosecutor Warren Gard asked the jury for a conviction of murder in the first degree. At the close of the arguments Judge Holden charged the jury, which then retired.

RACING AT OYSTER BAY

Four Crews of Naval Yacht Sylph Contest for Prizes Offered by President.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt Guests of Enlisted Men—Chief Executive Delivers Brief Speech, Which Is Received With Enthusiasm.

Oyster Bay, July 16.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt, together with Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw and a large party of relatives and friends, were enthusiastically interested witnesses of a boat race on Oyster Bay. The contestants were four crews of three men each selected from the enlisted men of the naval yacht Sylph. All were trained oarsmen, and spurred by the knowledge that the eyes of the president were upon them every one of the 12 brawny sailormen worked in the race as if his life depended upon his efforts.

The race was the idea of the Roosevelt children. It appealed strongly to the president. Through Lieutenant Preston, commander of the Sylph, the arrangements were perfected. The enlisted men on the Sylph and the children whose race it was to be entered with enthusiasm into all the details.

As the Sylph has no boats suitable for racing, the children tendered the sailors the use of their boats, four beautiful, pair-oared cedar skiffs.

The president added a substantial zest to the contest by offering a prize of $35, $25 of which should go to the winning crew and $10 to the second crew.

Race Was Interesting.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the president and Mrs. Roosevelt and Secretary Shaw, accompanied by 17 Roosevelt children, including the president's six children, embarked in launches and were taken to the Sylph. Scarcely had the party boarded the yacht when the contesting crews tumbled into their boats. A launch, commanded by Ensign Hamlin, in which were Miss Alice Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and his cousin, George Roosevelt, towed the boats to the starting point, a mile and a quarter due southeast of the Sylph. It was an ideal afternoon, cool and bracing, but as the wind was about nine knots the bay was a bit rough for fancy rowing.

At the crack of a pistol fired by Theodore the oars struck the water as one and the boats were off. For a hundred yards it was a pretty even race, but No. 1 gradually drew ahead and never afterward was in danger.

President Roosevelt greeted the members of the crew cordially as they went aboard the Sylph, shaking hands and saying a kindly word to each one. Then he presented the prizes to the coxswains of the winning and second crews. Soon afterward the president and his party left the Sylph for Sagamore hill.

Dined With Enlisted Men.

The president and Mrs. Roosevelt dined on board the Sylph as the guests of the enlisted men. The invitation to the dinner was extended to them through the vessel's commander, Lieutenant Preston, and was accepted gladly both by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt. At the conclusion of the dinner, which was served in the forecastle, the president delivered a brief talk to the men.

He desired them to realize fully, he said, that as Theodore Roosevelt and as president of the United States he had a warm personal interest in them.

WHO KNOWS

When His Kidney Trouble Has Fastened and Reached the Chronic Stage? If It Has It Is Incurable by Anything Known Except the Fulton Compounds. We Are The Sole Agents.

As an evidence of the unusual character of the Fulton Compounds that company does not publish or invite testimonials except those reporting recoveries in kidney diseases that have reached the chronic stage, alleged to be incurable. Here is another recovery in a case incurable till the advent of the Fulton Compounds, reported by John & Johnson, the agents of the Fulton Compounds in Los Gatos:

W. H. Fridley, a resident of Los Gatos, having chronic kidney disease (Bright's Disease) had, like everybody else, found all treatment futile. He commenced on Fulton's Renal Compound in February, 1902, and on December 10 of the same year reported the total disappearance of the disease. He writes that he has gained fifteen pounds in weight and is again able to do a good hard day's work. John & Johnson, the Los Gatos druggists, confirm this recovery and know of several other recoveries in similar cases of chronic kidney disease in Los Gatos, all of which were incurable by anything else known to druggists. S. A. Palmer, the leading druggist of Santa Cruz, H. H. Maynard, the Petaluma druggist, the Ferry Drug Company of No. 8 Market street, San Francisco, W. R. Ford, the Berkeley druggist, Dr. Markley, the Cloverdale druggist, Willis & Martin, the Sacramento druggists, and scores of other California druggists all report specific recoveries in chronic kidney diseases that were positively incurable by anything known except the Fulton Compounds.

Dropsy, rheumatism from uric acid, gout and bladder troubles are proofs that the kidneys are not performing their functions. The chronic stage of kidney trouble is Bright's Disease. If you feel languid or miserable, if your kidney trouble hangs on and for Pamphlet. Percentage of recoveries nearly 90 per cent among purely chronic cases. Fulton's Renal Compound is sold by druggists. S. A. Palmer, 121 1/2 Broadway, N. Y. John J. Fulton Co., 406 Washington street, San Francisco, sole compounders. Free analyses for patients. and in all the enlisted men in the navy. The welfare of the enlisted men in both the navy and army was one of the safeguards of the country. He urged them to be efficient and faithful to the performance of their duties and zealous in their work of preparation for a time, which might come almost unexpectedly, when their services would mean the life of the nation. In that supreme moment when all were thoroughly prepared—when by faithful attention to duty in hours of peace the work of war had been discounted—he had no fear that the navy of the United States would not add new luster to the American flag.

Referring to the contest of the afternoon the president declared it was a great sport, in which the men had entered with so generous and enthusiastic a spirit that he was assured they would manifest the same sort of spirit if the hour should come to try their patriotism and their fealty to the American flag.

The president's little address was received with tremendous enthusiasm and he was cheered again and again, much to the delight of himself and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Curious Rumor Afloat.

London, July 16.—According to the press association a curious rumor was current in the lobby in the house of commons to the effect that some United States warships had seized about 20 small islands off the coast of Borneo which, it is understood, belong to Great Britain and had planted the American flag on them. DEMURRERS

ACTED UPON

COURT DECIDES A NUMBER OF KNOTTY PROBLEMS.

Sister Charges Her Brother With Fraud in Settling Their Mother's Estate.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—In common pleas court yesterday afternoon Judge Hole passed upon a few more demurrers.

In the case of Florence Cumberland, of Hanover township, versus William C. Wright, of Toledo, and the American Surety company, of New York, a demurrer holding that the facts set forth were not sufficient cause of action against the surety company was sustained. This is a suit brought by Mrs. Cumberland, as a legatee of the estate of her mother, Mary A. Creighton, against her brother, William C. Wright, individually and as administrator of their mother's estate. The plaintiff alleges her brother induced her to sign a receipt for $180.53 as her share in her mother's estate and afterwards paid her only $35. By further fraud and deceit he is alleged to have had his final accounting approved in probate court and to have secured his release as administrator, at the same time by false representation preventing the filing of bill of exceptions by his sister until the expiration of the statutory limit. The surety company was made a defendant on the ground that the condition of the bond had been broken. The court held that there is sufficient cause for action against Wright.

A decree for the defendant was entered in the case of Elihu Simpson, of Salineville, versus Duffield Simpson et al., which was submitted to the court some time ago. In this case the plaintiff sued for the partition of a house and lot in Salineville, and the defendant set up that they were the owners of the entire house and lot by virtue of a deed from the mother of the litigant, to whom the will of her husband gave the property for life, with the right to dispose of it if necessary for her support.

In the partition case of Norman M. May versus Benjamin Trimble et al., of Salem, a demurrer to the answer was overruled, but Judge Hole held that this does not dispose of the merits of the action and reserved the right to determine the real question between the parties if the case is tried before him.

In the case of George Rice versus F. J. Neigh et al., J. M. Dickinson as assignee is substituted as plaintiff. Likewise in the case of George Rice versus Henry Rice and others.

In the case of Eden Reeder versus Peter Woodward et al., leave is given to answer by August 1.

No Court Until Monday.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—Court adjourned last evening until next Monday, when Judge Ambler, of Canton, will occupy the bench. The jury has been ordered to report Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Judge Hole will preside for the final assignments arranged for a week from next Monday.

Two Drowned from Capsized Launch. Davenport, Ia., July 16.—Clara Licht and Elsie Morey were drowned by the capsizing of a launch in the Mississippi river. Four young men who were thrown into the river from the overturned boat saved themselves.

LOW-DOWN POLITICS SAYS MAYOR WEAVER

Council's Manifest Intention to Put Chief Wyman Out of Office Scathingly Condemned.

MEANING OF A PENDING ORDINANCE

For the purpose of effecting the removal of John W. Wyman from the office of chief of police, four members of the city council, Bullock, Croxall, Moon and Johnston, at the adjourned meeting held last evening, by their vote in the affirmative had an ordinance, providing for a chief of police, seven patrolmen and a night watchman, placed on its first reading. President Horwell, who presided, had nothing to say regarding the ordinance. Mr. Smith raised strenuous objections.

The first ordinance drafted for the purpose of creating and classifying the offices incident to the police department, it will be remembered, was introduced several weeks ago and was placed on its first reading. It was expected that the ordinance would come up at the regular meeting of council on last Tuesday evening, but owing to the negligence of some one, nobody knows who, it was not presented. One member of council asked where it was and the reply was made, "It is not here." It is now evident that there was a strong reason for its being kept away.

After every other ordinance had been disposed of last evening a member again asked for the ordinance. It was called for by the president and before a motion to pass upon it was honored Croxall got the floor and stated that he had an amendment to offer to the original ordinance. The amendment was to decrease the number of patrolmen from 8 to 7 and provide a night watchman at the city hall, his salary to be fixed at $45 per month. The motion was seconded and Pres-

A HUNTER FOUGHT BY AN ANGRY CROW

The Bird Thought the Man Posed On His Preserves and Scratched and Bit.

SERIOUS WOUND GIVEN

For several weeks past there has been a rivalry between two parties of ground hog hunters in Chester. The men are employees of the tin mill and for days have been spending all their spare time at the sport. They have learned all the tricks known to modern hunters, and have put many of them into execution, with the result that the ground hog has become very scarce in that locality.

Charles Melott and a party left the town on Monday for a cleaning up, and while going through a corn field south of the city succeeded in getting a shot at an animal which he at first thought was a bear, but upon going to the spot after he had killed it found that he had bagged a ground hog weighing 40 pounds. The most peculiar part of the find was the fact that the animal was entirely white. The oldest hunters of the community had never before seen the like, and feeling sure he had captured a freak, Melott returned to town and put his find on exhibition.

The success which attended Melott and his friends made the other party jealous, and B. I. Hilliard, Willard Mercer and Lon Shaffer went to the country yesterday and did not return until this morning. About four miles southeast of Chester the dogs ran a ground hog into a hollow tree, and some difficulty was experienced in getting him out. It was found that a hole had been rotted away about 20 feet from the ground, and Hilliard, without thinking of any danger, climbed to it and commenced the task of routing the ground hog. The animal had crawled to the spot and was close to the hole when Hilliard appeared. He was able to use but one hand, and the animal fought desperately. While engaged with the beast a crow, which had been perched high up in the tree, swooped down on the tin worker and he was attacked on the other side. Hilliard was bitten and scratched in a terrible manner by the infuriated bird, and is now suffering from a nasty bite on one of his fingers. He abandoned the fight and slid to the ground, more dead than alive. The ground hog was shot later and when weighed the men claimed tipped the scales at 60 pounds.

Hilliard's hand is terribly swollen, and it is feared blood poisoning may result.

BETTER STREETS FOR THE COUNTY SEAT

Important Paving Projects Which Are Likely to Be Undertaken Soon.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—Several street paving projects are being considered by Lisbon property owners, which, if carried out, will be a great improvement to the city. The principal one of these is the paving of North Market street from the point where the paving ends a short distance north of the square to the fair grounds, and it is said that a petition to this end has received the required number of signatures of property owners who are willing to pave at their own expense.

A short section of street running north from the northeast corner of the square one block to Chestnut street on which the city hall will be located will also probably be paved. The paving of South Market street from the Hasbrouck hotel to the P. L. & W. railroad track is also contemplated.

TRADES COUNCIL FIGHTS GAS STEAL

Legislative Committee Will Aid the City Council to Enforce Ordinance.

BLACKSMITHS IN TROUBLE

Another formidable opponent has just been enlisted to fight the gas corporation, and the city council will have the support and endorsement of the East Liverpool central labor union, representing over 4,000 good citizens, in its effort to enforce the ordinance restricting the price of gas.

The matter was discussed by the trades council at its last meeting, and was at that time placed in the hands of the legislative committee with authority to proceed with the fight as best suited. A careful inquiry has been made by the committee during the past week, and a report was made at the meeting last night. It is the opinion of the committee that the gas company proposes to resist the effort to keep the price of gas within reason, and that the city council ought to be prepared to take the question to the courts for a decision as to the constitutionality of the state law which gave it the authority for the enactment of the ordinance. The committee made arrangements to attend the meeting of the city council this evening, at which time an exchange of ideas will be had, and other details arranged whereby an organized effort can be made to prevent the robbery about to be perpetrated by the gas combination.

The attendance was not large at the meeting of the central body last evening but the interest did not lag for a moment. J. Brooks was the only new candidate seated last night, and he hailed from the teamsters.

An important communication was received from the headquarters office of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths at Moline, Ill. It dealt with the strike now on at the factory of the McDole Hammer company at Norwich, N. Y., in which more than the usual interest has been taken by unionists all over the country. The circular asked that the council have a committee appointed to call upon the local retailers and ascertain whether or not any of the product of the non-union firm is being handled in this city. If so, the committee was to request the retailer to discontinue its sale until such time as the Norwich firm signed the scale and squared itself with the union. The request was complied with and a committee consisting of Fred Pennington, S. A. Shipley and George Eisenhuth was appointed to perform the work.

A report was forthcoming from a number of other locals with reference to the views of the members on the question of whether or not there was to be a labor day parade this year. Those reporting were unanimous in favor of the feature, and it now looks as though the labor day committee would heed the overwhelming sentiment for a parade.

Delegate Wright, from the painters' union, reported that Samuel Steele, a member of local union No. 9, persisted in allowing a non-union firm to proceed with the painting of his house. Steele had been approached by the business agent of the painters and had ignored his appeals. The local to which Steele belongs will be Continued on Fourth Page.

COUNCIL ACTS ON ORDINANCES

The Tax Levy Amended and Placed Upon Its Second Reading.

CITY ENGINEER'S OFFICE

Created By a New Measure And the Engineer's Salary Fixed at $2,000 Though He Offered to Do the Work And Pay His Help for Less.

Council acted upon nothing but ordinances at the adjourned meeting last evening. It had been made plain to the members that the ordinance designating the tax levy should be passed and submitted to the county auditor, and as it was desired to give the city officials and employees their salaries three meetings were arranged for. The last of them will be held this evening.

The ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles was introduced and placed on its third reading. The ordinance fixing the number and salaries of the men to serve on the fire department was also passed on its third reading. The tax levy had been read but once and was passed on its first reading. This ordinance was introduced on Tuesday evening and voted upon, but yesterday it was discovered that money for the park, library, printing and health funds had been omitted. They were included as follows: Park, $500; library, $1,000; printing, $300; health fund, $800.

Upon the completion of the action regarding the above ordinances the ordinance committee was heard and it reported that another question of importance had been presented to it and asked permission to present one more ordinance. The members of the committee stated that inasmuch as it has been discovered that the board of public service had no right to employ the city engineer or to designate his salary and that the power and right was entirely with council they would recommend that the following ordinance be passed:

"That there is hereby created the office of city civil engineer, which officer shall be appointed by the mayor subject to confirmation by council, and shall serve for the term of two years from the fourth day of May in each year in which said appointment shall be made and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said city civil engineer shall perform such duties as the nature and character of his office may require, and such other duties not incompatible with the nature of his office. He may employ such assistants and at such compensation as council may name. Said city civil engineer shall receive for his services the sum of $2,000 per year."

Without discussion the ordinance was placed on its first reading. Why council took such a step as the above is hard to imagine. By the ordinance, if it passes and J. C. Kelly is the appointee, he will receive $2,600 for his services. In his contract with the board of public service he agreed to do his work and hire his assistants, all for $1,900. Now council, without solicitation, intends to pay the salary of the assistants and give the engineer the big salary for the same work that he offered to do for about half the total proposed.

Mayor Weaver stated this morning that he would veto the ordinance, and it is understood that citizens will remonstrate over the increase as provided in the ordinance. Those interested in the library fund are unable to understand why $300 should be taken away from it and three times the amount given to an official who has agreed to do the work for much less money.

LONGER HOURS FOR SALOON MEN

Request Preferred to Mayor Weaver For Special Privileges Carnival Week.

The local saloon keepers, through a committee appointed for the purpose, have requested Mayor Weaver to permit them to keep open an hour later during the five days of the carnival next week.

Mayor Weaver stated this morning that it had not been made clear to him that he had the power to act upon the request. "If I have the power," he said, "I will certainly refuse the request."

BELLAIRE FIRM GETS THE CONTRACT

Calcutta Road Paving in St. Clair Township Will Cost About $21,000.

Rosser & Malone, of Bellaire, were the lowest bidders yesterday for the work of paving the Calcutta road in St. Clair township. Their bid amounted to a total of about $21,000. Rinehart Bros., Davis & McNamee, McLaughlin Bros., of this city, and Freshwater & Sons, Chester, were the other bidders.

The bonds of the township will be sold as soon as possible and that done, the contractors will at once be authorized to begin work on the greatly needed improvement.

MANUFACTURERS ARE OPPOSING IT

The Engineers' Scale Is Encountering Some Unexpected Opposition.

POSITION OF THE UNION

From developments which have come to light since the International Union of Steam Engineers presented its scale to the factory owners of this vicinity, it would appear that there is going to be some opposition to the enforcement of the provisions of the regulations. The scale was presented on last Monday, and at that time the proposal was accompanied by a statement to the effect that the union would allow 30 days in which the employers might go over the several provisions and give the demands all the consideration they would need.

Officers of the organization assert the employers are making a bid for public sentiment in an underhanded way. It had been said by the management of factories in this city that the membership of the union is very limited, and that it would be impossible for it to enforce a wage scale on that account. An officer of the union said this morning:

"Of the number of engineers employed in this community we have a very large percentage in our organization and it is hoped when the 30 days' limit expires to have the entire membership within its ranks. Some of the employees are resorting to unusual tactics in order to defeat our efforts to obtain better conditions for the members of our union. Every one interested is aware that there are two organizations of steam engineers in East Liverpool, and that both are in a prosperous condition. They are in no sense rivals, however, as the aims and objects are as different as if they concerned trades entirely removed from each other. The local branch of the National Association of Stationary Engineers is purely an educational society, and was conceived for the purpose of placing its members on a higher plane in regard to their knowledge of engineering. The members of the N. A. S. E. do not take up the matter of wages, and it is never discussed by the association."

"Our organization, on the other hand, is nothing if not a labor union. Its purpose is to better the condition of its members in the matter of wages and working conditions. The two do not conflict and many of the members of the former society are also connected with the union. We as a union have asked for a uniform wage of $2.50 per day and believe we earn every cent of it. To show you to what extremity some of the managers will go I want to cite one case.

"An official of one of the local concerns told our committee that the manufacturers had received word from the East Liverpool branch of the N. A. S. E. to the effect that the latter organization was prepared and stood ready to furnish all the engineers at the rate of $2 per day. We immediately took steps to ascertain the truth of the assertion, and last night representatives of our union met with the association. We secured a positive declaration from the officers and members that they had not, nor would they, make such a proposition to the manufacturers. You can see by this that the employers are endeavoring to create a false impression with the people, and we

While at Play Elza Caldwell, of Dixonville, Shot Himself in a Terrible Manner.

CHANCES ARE AGAINST HIS RECOVERY

A terrible tragedy was enacted at the home of Henderson Caldwell, in Dixonville, East End, shortly before noon today, and as a result the life of Elza, his 14-year-old son, is slowly ebbing away. The boy is in a most critical condition and the attending physician has no hope of his recovery.

The tragedy occurred in an upstairs room of the Caldwell home, where Elza and a younger brother were at play. Tiring of other amusements, they seized upon an old shot gun standing in one corner of the room. It afforded them innocent amusement for a time but they attempted to raise the hammer and the weapon was discharged.

The entire charge struck the older boy in the groin, making a gaping wound almost entirely through the body. Dr. Farrell happened to be in believe they mean to stir up a feeling between the two organizations if they can. It will not succeed."

The local engineers' union has been organized but a few months, but is in excellent condition, both financially and numerically. It is not anticipated that any trouble will be encountered in bringing about the changes asked.

BOOKS CORRECT TO A PENNY

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT ON THE STATE TREASURY.

Hon. I. B. Cameron Warmly Commended for the Way He Conducts the Office.

Columbus, July 16.—(Special)—Governor Nash has made public the report of the commission which he appointed, as required by law, to examine the state treasury. Everything was found in excellent condition and State Treasurer I. B. Cameron was commended for the efficient manner in which he conducts the affairs of the department. Under the law there must be no previous notice or intimation of the intention of the commission to make an examination served on the treasurer.

The governor appointed Hon. I. C. Laylin, secretary of state, and Frank R. Shimm, an accountant of Columbus, as the commission and they visited the state treasury on June 13. They made a thorough examination and inspection of all books, vouchers, accounts, records, bonds, securities, claims, assets and effects and found that everything tallied exactly with the accounts of the same kept in the auditor's office and the insurance commissioner's office.

The condition of the finances was found to be perfect. A careful count showed the funds on hand to be $3,216,362.95, the exact amount charged to the treasurer.

Defendant Awarded $270.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—The jury in the appropriation case of the Stark Electric Railway company versus Nellie Hogan, of Salem, returned a verdict last evening allowing the defendant $270 for the 7.10 of an acre appropriated and $50 damages to the residue of the tract. The case against Charles and Martin Lottman came on for hearing this morning.

EVERYBODY IS INTERESTED

Since the hair-raising finish made by the leaders in the News Review voting contest when Series G had been counted yesterday, it was thought the interest might be relaxed to some extent for a few days, but such was not the case. If any difference it would tend to show that the contestants and their friends are more in earnest than ever. But 15 days remain in which to win out or go down to defeat, and the canvass is being made in a most thorough manner. To the present the contest has been a close one, but the very best of feeling has prevailed throughout, and the friendliness will undoubtedly continue.

The News Review is being commended upon every hand for its generosity and enterprise in making the unprecedented offer of a trip to the old world, as well as an outing at some one of the numerous resorts in this country.

It is expected that several of the candidates will devote a great portion of the time for the next two weeks the outcome, so near at hand, will be watched with interest.

The following candidates have 100 votes or more to their credit: Thomas Lounds, Fourth street, 33,775; J. E. Anderson, Lincoln avenue, 32,894; Thomas Neal, Riverside Park, 32,399; Matthew Curran, Jethro street, 9,907; Walter S. WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

A CRY FOR NOVELTY.

In clay building there are certain type forms which are the natural outcome of the material. It would be absurd to contend that the Indian women copied the ancient British, and yet many pieces are very similar, though produced thousands of miles apart. In like manner, many a piece has been made, in a modern studio, which closely resembles the work of the past, but without the maker ever having seen that which he is accused of copying. It is not to be expected that anyone, before sitting down to shape his clay, shall institute a search in every available quarter, in order that he may not trespass upon any pre-existing forms. No such thought was present to hamper and cripple the enterprise of long ago. The Egyptian, the Greek, the Chinaman, and the Indian, each expressed himself in his material, and it is unfair to deny a similar privilege to the workers of today.

The modern manufacturer is persecuted by the cry for novelty. The senseless demand for new things, new shapes, new colors, new designs, has resulted, on the one hand, in an indiscriminate use of old shapes with some slight change to justify a different name, and, on the other, in the production of certain outrageous objects which may, fortunately, claim to be new. Such things are always new, for they never live long enough to grow old; whereas, the precious productions of ancient time live among men as literature lives. They cannot die, for the world cannot do without them.

GOES TO PEORIA.

Fred Pennington, well known in the western district, has accepted a position with the Crown Pottery company, of Peoria, and will leave for that city next Friday. Mr. Pennington has been prominent in local labor circles, having served with credit in trades council and as one of the directors of the co-operative store. He has also served several terms as secretary of the packers local No. 25. He will take charge of the packing sheds of the Peoria plant.

REASON FOR DELAY.

It is given as the reason for the postponement of the conference between the Brotherhood and manufacturers' committees, that neither side was ready for the arrangement of the final details of the new wage scale. The Brotherhood committee has worked hard to master every detail of the proposition of the manufacturers and a great amount of investigating work has been necessary. The postponement of the conference has no effect upon the present conditions.

NOW INCORPORATED.

The American Kaolin company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $500,000 for the purpose of mining clay and manufacturing pottery, china, etc. The company was incorporated by E. F. Whitman, as president, and

Made Before Council By Mr. Bullock Concerning the Library Appropriation.

Editor News Review—I want to take exceptions to Mr. Bullock's statement to council that the people voted only in favor of $3,000 for the Carnegie library and no more, for they would be a set of dummies, indeed, to think that the library for all time to come must be run on $3,000 a year no matter what increase in patronage it might have or the demands made upon it.

Mr. Carnegie said: "If you will agree to provide at least $3,000 a year I will give you $50,000." The people said, "We accept your offer."

Now, neither the people nor Mr. Carnegie said: "You shall not provide for more than $3,000." On the contrary, both knew the day would come when the library could not exist on $3,000 a year.

Let me call Mr. Bullock's and council's attention to an act of theirs this week. They provided $1,200 for the Thompson park, and rightly, too. Mr. Thompson in his gift stipulated that the city should provide at least $1,000 a year, just as Mr. Carnegie provided for at least $3,000 a year. Now, why hot and cold in the same evening?

If Mr. Bullock and council are opposed to the principles of a free library be honest enough to say so frankly and let the 100,000 who attended the library last year know it. The paltry $300 taken from the library levy would have added that many books to the shelves the coming year and been of great help to the institution, but I doubt if the same which was added to the city's funds will "cut much ice," as the boys say.

Mr. Editor, I have not the honor to be on the library board and hence am not interested, but I am a citizen-taxpayer, ashamed of the attitude we as a community are placed in by the action of council, crippling as it does the educational facilities of our city.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me, I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. These Tablets surely make one feel joyful."

THE ELKS' VISIT TO NEW CASTLE

How the Trip and the Visitors Were Sized Up by a Paper of That City.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT

And a Good Base Ball Game Features of the Enjoyable Event—The Program of the Day And Evening And How It Was Carried Out.

In their endeavor to cause the East Liverpool Elks to depart for their homes Tuesday night feeling that New Castle was the most hospitable place they ever visited, the local Elks, whose guests they were, did well. They were here for a whole day, says the New Castle News, and the New Castle brethren saw that not a lull in the way of entertainment occurred.

Good fellowship and conviviality was at a high ebb during the entire proceedings. The common brotherhood of man and the duties toward each other were exemplified on this occasion, for they form the very foundation upon which the principles of the order are built.

The East Liverpool delegation, numbering about 60, arrived in the city shortly before noon. They were met at the depot by the reception committee and escorted to the club rooms of the Elks, where they rested and exchanged greetings with the local members, while E. M. Wier, steward of the club and his competent force of assistants were finishing the preparation for the elegant repast. However, before lunch, the visitors were taken in special cars over the lines of the traction company so that they could see the beauties of our city, with which they were favorably impressed.

The purpose of the visit, however, was to play a game of ball with the New Castle Elks and the strangers were amazed to learn the statement upon their departure that charity and brotherly love had prompted the local lodge at a meeting held last Saturday to pass a resolution to let the East Liverpool club win the game by one run.

However, the East Liverpool players held that justice on the part of the umpire and fidelity of the players to their team, are responsible for their victory.

Therefore, justice, charity, brotherly love and fidelity, the four principles of the order mingled in the hearts of the New Castle and East Liverpool Elks.

The contest was a good one and the account of it is interesting. When the game was over all repaired to the spacious club rooms again, where they had dinner. The comfortable quarters of the local lodge were made even more inviting by the addition of special decorations for the event, and the energies of Mr. Wier and his force were directed after dinner in arranging for the stag social which was held at night. The rooms were trimmed in purple and white, mingled with stars and stripes. Potted plants and flowers adorned the rooms, and banqueting tables, which presented a pleasing sight.

The East Liverpool Elks, together with about 200 of the local members, sat down about 10 o'clock, when S. S. Hamilton introduced Past Exalted Ruler William R. Garvin, as toastmaster of the evening, who in that capacity was right at home. Then followed toasts and addresses from talented members from both lodges, some teeming with wit and humor, while others were expressions of appreciation on the part of the visiting brothers for the entertainment extended to them at the hands of the New Castle lodge. Parsons' orchestra was present and rendered excellent music.

Mayor John C. Jackson delivered the address of welcome in a few well chosen words and was followed by Senator Blake, of East Liverpool, whose remarks rang with expressions of gratitude, interspersed with humorous digression. George E. Davidson, Esq., city solicitor of East Liverpool, did so well when called upon for a toast, that he was prevailed upon to sing, which he did in a pleasing way. When he finished, Toastmaster Garvin announced that it was the hour of 11, at which time a toast to absent brothers is given, and he called upon Attorney B. A. Winternitz to respond to "Our Absent Brothers." The toastmaster referred to him as one whom they all knew could propose the toast in an able and eloquent manner. This was an impressive feature of the evening and Mr. Winternitz in well clothed language expressed the significance of the occasion. Dr. J. Howard Davis, one of the visiting brothers, was called upon and made a few happy remarks. He was followed by Hugh Hamill, of East Liverpool, with a fine solo. Then the inimitable Michael Graham, of this city, was prevailed upon to render one of his characteristic songs. Mr. Gleason, of Pittsburg, spoke for a time in an amusing way, and the visiting Elks left for their special train at the Pennsylvania depot, accompanied by a large number of the local men, after singing "Auld Lang Syne." A pressing invitation was extended the local Elks to again visit East Liverpool before the ball season closes.

A BRANCH LIBRARY

May Be Established in East End. Agent is Now Soliciting for Membership.

W. W. Krawford, of Philadelphia, representing the Booklovers' Library, has been at work among East End people soliciting support for the establishment here of a branch of the institution. If 75 subscribers can be secured the branch will be started and 200 books will be placed in Williams drug store. Each fortnight 45 books are to be returned to headquarters and a similar number of new ones sent out. The membership fee for the first year is $1.50 and for each succeeding year $1.

The Booklovers' and Tabard Inn libraries are now under the same management and both are known over the entire country. The agent is having little difficulty in securing subscribers and in all probability the branch will be established.

Will Resume His Duties.

Rev. P. W. Snyder, pastor of the Long's Run Presbyterian church, who has been ill for the past two months of typhoid fever, has entirely recovered and will resume his work this week. Members of his congregation and his many friends in East End will be pleased to learn that he has regained his health.

The Ivy club, composed of about 15 well known East End young men, has vacated its club rooms in Oakland and negotiations are on for quarters in the new Founts building on Mulberry street. One suite of rooms in the Founts building has been leased to the Ben Hur band.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husbard, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at other times she was able to walk. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

ROCK SPRINGS THEATRE

May Get the First Engagement of Miss Shay's Novel Production.

Negotiations are now on whereby Miss Ruth Shay's Choir Transformation may appear at the Rock Springs theatre for one week some time during the present season. The piece is a new thing and is bound to go. If the deal is closed with Manager McCollum, the friends of Mr. Shay in this city will be given an opportunity to see the opening engagement of the production right at home. Several thousand dollars has been spent by the projectors of the enterprise in equipping it for the road. The scenery is fine and the musical feature is unsurpassed.

A Woman's Complexion.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment, as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New size trial bottle, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists.

POLICE VICTORIOUS

Desperate Battle With Mob in Streets of Chicago Against Great Odds.

WATCHMAN FIRES INTO CROWD

Precipitating All Kinds of Trouble.

Futile Efforts of Strikers to Stop Delivery of Freight—Score of Arrests Made.

Chicago, July 16.—Desperate fighting between the police and the strikers of the Kellogg Switchboard company took place when the company attempted to send freight to some of the railroad depots. In one instance the police opened fire with revolvers, and although the fusillade was continued for several minutes nobody was injured. Later there was a fight in which no revolvers were used and the police laid out a number of men, some of whom were left in the street until their friends came back and picked them up.

Police Fire on Workmen.

The first fight occurred when a truck loaded with freight escorted by police bound for the Burlington depot was passing an unfinished building at the corner of Harrison and Peoria streets. A howling mob of a thousand men and boys was following the police and pelting them with stones and sticks. Teamsters who sympathized with the strikers managed to get their wagons in the way of the Kellogg company's wagon as it reached Peoria street and occasioned a blockade. The police were endeavoring to clear the street, when the workmen on the unfinished building showered them with bricks.

The officers at once drew their revolvers and fired at the workmen, who hastily fled to the interior of the building. The police kept up their fire through the windows and drove nearly all the workmen from the place. The route to the depot was then taken up, and although there were several blockades the wagon reached the depot and the goods were delivered.

The second fight occurred when the police were escorting a wagonload of freight to the warehouse of the Terminal Transfer company at Ogden avenue and Twelfth street. A mob fully 2,000 strong followed this wagon and although the police were outnumbered a hundred to one they took the wagon safely to the depot. The mob had greatly increased by the time the wagon was ready to make the return trip, and for half a mile it pursued the police, applying to them all sorts of epithets and pelting them with sticks and stones, without, however, injuring any person seriously.

Mob Charges on Police.

The climax came at Congress street and Ogden avenue, when a private watchman, who had no particular call to mix in the trouble on either side, fired at one of the mob. The shot went wild, but it inflamed the mob to the highest degree, and with shouts and yells they charged down on the police. The latter were waiting for the crowd and when it arrived the officers went at it with fists and clubs. They were greatly outnumbered, but they fought well together, and in less than three minutes every member of the mob who could use his feet was doing so to the best of his ability. Fully a dozen men with broken heads were left lying in the street where they had been knocked by the clubs of the officers. Some of them were loaded into the wagon and taken to the police station, as were a number who were not quick enough in commencing their retreat. About 20 arrests were made during the day.

The Kellogg company announces that it will continue to send out freight every day and the strikers say that they will use every means to prevent their doing so.

At all the depots where freight was delivered the freight handlers refused to unload any of the wagons and the work was done by special men employed by the company.

The strike, which has now been in progress for a month, was ordered by the unions because the company refused to sign an agreement to employ union men exclusively.

The questions of wages and hours were agreed upon by both sides, but the company refused to force its non-union men into the organization.

A communication in another column calls attention to the fact that unnecessary and unseemly haggling is going on in council over the appropriation for Carnegie library for the coming year. The difference between the amount recommended by the tax commission and the amount at which Councilman Bullock seeks to fix the appropriation is only $300. The tax commission is composed of gentlemen who are familiar with the needs of the library and also with the financial affairs of the city. They are quite as astute and able financiers as Councilman Bullock, to say the least, and why his recommendation should carry more weight than theirs it is impossible to conceive. If it were proposed to save $3,000 or $5,000, the matter would be worth considering, but where only the paltry sum of $300 is concerned, since experience has demonstrated that the money is needed there is no excuse for such a cheese-paring policy. Economy in public expenditures is wise and necessary; niggardiness is neither wise nor politic. If it is necessary to cut some appropriation $200 there are funds that can bear the reduction vastly better than that of the library. There has been no extravagance in the management of that institution, but instead the utmost carefulness and caution. Yet it has been demonstrated that the minimum appropriation of $3,000 is barely sufficient to run the library, and leave practically nothing for the purchase of new books or for the replacing of old and worn-out volumes. It is simply folly to cripple the usefulness of a noble institution in its infancy for the sake of $300 which is quite likely to be wasted somewhere else. The time will come as the city grows when the library cannot be maintained and kept abreast of the times on the $3,000 which Mr. Carnegie fixed as the minimum of annual expenditure. The absurdity of the proposition that the appropriation can not legally exceed that figure is apparent to every one. Three hundred dollars means much to the library and very little to the city. Council should not listen to the penny-wise-and-pound-foolish argument that the library fund is the one to cut. East Liverpool has always been liberal in appropriations for its educational institutions, and the library, fast assuming a place among the grandest of them, should not be made to suffer simply because a councilman seeks a cheap method of gaining notoriety as an economist.

Although it is almost two weeks since the Fourth of July the celebration of that day still continues to furnish items for the newspapers and business for physicians and coroners. The effects of the deadly toy pistol are still being felt, as is attested by the list of deaths from lockjaw recorded daily in all the large cities. There is scarcely a town of any importance in the country that has not added one or more victims to the melancholy chapter, and the harvest of death is likely to continue for some weeks yet. All this terrible waste of human life—the victims being largely children—is needless and wantonly reckless. It should arouse public sentiment and compel legislatures and city councils to enact measures that will relegate the death-dealing toy pistol to the same category as other destructive agencies and sternly forbid its sale and use. The law kills mad dogs and restricts the sale of poisons. Yet here is a so-called plaything that causes more misery and more deaths than both, and as yet scarcely anything has been done to interfere with its baleful work. It is high time that the press, the pulpit and other reform agencies began an agitation that shall continue until the toy pistol has been put out of business.

If, as seems apparent, the object of the amended ordinance regarding the police force is to legislate Chief of Police Wyman out of office, council should seriously consider the step it is asked to take before acting. Mayor Weaver is the executive head of the city of East Liverpool and responsible to the whole city for its government and the enforcement of its laws. He has shown a disposition to be fair and just, and it would be a serious mistake to tie his hands or to force him to select a chief of police whom he does not want or one with whom he cannot work in perfect agreement. Chief of Police Wyman is an experienced officer, as well as one who is strong and capable. He is the man whom the mayor chose to assist him in preserving order in the city and in suppressing lawlessness, and there is no good reason yet adduced for legislating him out of office. His position is one that is difficult to fill, and changes in a place of such importance, after it is once well filled, ought not to be encouraged.

ident Horwell asked for remarks. The only member replying was Smith, the councilman from the East End. He said that he could not understand the action of his brother members; that they could not be in favor of the alteration if they wanted to give the people protection and that he would never vote for the passage of the ordinance. The president then demanded a vote and it resulted as follows: For the passage of the ordinance—Croxall, Bullock, Moon and Johnston. Against the passage—Smith.

Mayor Weaver was present when the work was done but had nothing to say until the body adjourned. He then got into a lively conversation with Croxall. He asked him why such action was taken and the councilman was in hard straits to discover an answer. He finally said, however, that it was done because the board of public safety had asked for a night watch man and that council thought the request should be granted. He maintained that the extra man together with 8 patrolmen and a chief would make the expense too heavy for the people. The mayor was so angry that it was impossible for him to restrain from retaliation and he scored the councilman in many expressive epithets.

In conversation with a reporter of the News Review regarding the council's action, Mayor Weaver said: "It was the working of low-down politics. There is not one of the members of council who voted for the passage of that ordinance who can justify himself before the eyes of our best citizens. I feel that it is a direct blow at the success of my administration. I have no desire other than to see that the city shall be orderly and decent and I would certainly insist on the affairs being conducted in a business-like and proper manner. The action cannot be justified on the grounds of economy. There is no one who will insist that we have a sufficient supply of police in the city. The continuous clamor is for additional officers. The aim of the whole thing in a nutshell is to get Chief Wyman out of office. I don't believe that there is any class opposed to Wyman, except the gamblers, saloonkeepers and law-breakers, the honorable members of council to the contrary notwithstanding.

"The action taken by council was dirty, low and contemptible, and I don't believe there is a man among them who voted in favor of the ordinance who can look me straight in the eye and give a plausible excuse for the action.

"I don't know exactly what my recourse is, but I don't propose to let the work of four men such as voted in the affirmative last night have any influence on my action. I do propose to employ the highest authority, and if Wyman is knocked out it will only be after a hard battle."

made acquainted with the circumstances and asked to take some action. The grievance committee of the council will also give the matter some consideration.

A communication had been received from the San Francisco central labor union some time ago, which was of very great importance to the workers of the country. Matters of the utmost importance would be up for consideration at the meeting of the A. F. of L. when it meets in Boston next November, and the communication urged that the local council send a delegate to the meeting. As has been customary until last year the council, by vote, decided to have representation at the next session of the federation.

A report was made on the condition of the co-operative store. It had been determined to change the system of doing business somewhat, and the directors deemed it wise to acquaint the council, which was the father of the institution, with the details of the new plan. The business is in good condition, and with the inauguration of the new and more modern system, it was confidently expected the concern would be more prosperous than ever.

Which Is Foolish? Which Is Wise?

You are paying $15.00 a month rent; your neighbor is paying $15.00 a month on his property. In ten years you will have 120 rent receipts representing $1800.00 of your hard earned money. Your neighbor will have a deed free and clear from all encumbrances for his home worth perhaps $2500.00. You paid $1800.00 out and have nothing. He paid $1800.00 out and owns his home which meanwhile has grown in value. He has $2500.00 to his credit in property; you have nothing. You earned $3.00 per day. He earned $3.00 per day. You had a wife and family. He had a wife and family. You had sickness of yourself and family. He had sickness of himself and family. You had no work part of the time. He had no work part of the time. You had to meet your $15.00 rent monthly. He had to meet his $15.00 payment monthly. Had you failed to have paid your rent you would have been ejected. Had he failed to make his payments he would have taken advantage of the Grace in his Contract.

Who is the wise one?
Who is the foolish one?

We're after your case.
We want to help you.
Give us opportunity.
We'll do it.

If you are at all intelligent you will see our point. It is not what you spend your money for, but how you spend it. Clothes and food are legitimate expenditures of money but if someone offers you a way that you can buy clothes and food and receive back your money would you not avail yourself of it? Why then not take the same plan when it is offered you in that other essential of life, a shelter, a home.

We make the offer and are Waiting to hear from you.

CLIMAX REACHED IN THE STRUGGLE

Dallas Pittenger Sues for His Salary as Janitor of City Building.

The climax has been reached in the struggle between council and the board of public service for control of the city building, the matter having been taken into the court of Justice Riley for a ruling by Dallas Pittenger, who sues for his salary as janitor of the building. He was appointed by the board of public service, but council has steadfastly refused to appropriate money for the payment of his services on the ground that it would be a useless expenditure, as the janitor work has been done heretofore by the city building policeman. Nothing daunted Pittenger continued to do the work and several times presented his bill for payment. It was turned down with the regularity of clock work, and on Wednesday afternoon Pittenger brought suit, through his attorney, F. L. Jones, in 'Squire Riley's' court, for $59.51, the amount claimed due him for 10 days in May and all of June.

The hearing has been set for Saturday, July 25, and the outcome will be watched with the deepest interest by the taxpayers generally.

Pittenger and the city building policeman, William Elliott, have both been on duty at the building. Elliott looks after Mayor Fogo's office and the city jail. One morning not long ago Pittenger went into the mayor's office for the purpose of cleaning it up and was ordered to stay out. He was given distinctly to understand that he had no business whatever there in the capacity of janitor, and since that time he has confined his work to the other parts of the building.

Whatever may be the decision of 'Squire Riley' there is sure to be an appeal to the common pleas court. City Solicitor Boyd is sanguine that the city can successfully resist payment of Pittenger's claim and believes council did right in refusing to pay him.

The fight will be one to the finish and the first round in the 'Squire's' court is eagerly awaited.

REORGANIZATION OF FIRE LADS

New Officers And New Equipment Are Promised the Department.

Fire Chief Phillips has called a general meeting of the three companies at the city hall hose house for tomorrow night when three captains, three lieutenants and a secretary and treasurer will be elected. The re-organization will be thorough in every particular, the intention being to make the department strictly up-to-date.

Considerable new hose and other appliances are being purchased and as soon as possible a horse and wagon will be purchased for the West End hose house. It is often a very difficult matter to find a ready horse at night for that portion of the city, and the uptown companies invariably reach the scene of fire first on account of that lack and hindrance in the West End.

It is proposed to make the West End hose wagon a police patrol also, as something of that kind has long been needed here. There is talk of an automobile patrol, but nothing definite has yet been decided upon in that regard.

NEARLY BURIED ALIVE

A Plumber Had a Close Call from Being Overwhelmed And Crushed.

While working in a six-foot trench at the Whitaker block yesterday afternoon Thomas Wilkinson, a plumber, came near being buried alive as the result of the trench caving in. Fortunately he was standing when the dirt closed in around him and his neck and head were not covered.

Wilkinson has an impediment of speech and it was some time before he succeeded in summoning help. Some bricklayers heard his cries and rescued him after 20 minutes hard work. He was not injured in the least.

New York Wants Third Bridge.

New York, July 16.—The board of estimate and apportionment unanimously reappropriated $6,533,000 for the usage of Manhattan bridge (No. 3) over the East river between Manhattan and Brooklyn. The appropriation cannot be made if a majority of the board of aldermen again vote against it. But if such adverse vote is not had within six weeks the bonds may be issued under the action of the charter providing for such a contingency.

SOUTH SIDE

A HUGE GASSER ON HADLEY FARM

CHESTER OIL & GAS COMPANY'S BIG STRIKE.

Preparations Being Hastened for the Development of the Entire Territory of 500 Acres.

The wildest excitement prevailed in Chester this morning when Isaac Clark, one of the drillers, arrived in town with the information that a heavy pressure of gas had been struck at the first well put down by the Chester Oil & Gas company, and that the men at work had experienced great difficulty in keeping the tools in the well, so strong was the force of the gas.

Clark was so frustrated by the sudden find that he was able to give but a meager account of the affair, and in a very few minutes several hack loads of stockholders in the company were on their way to the field. Some of the parties returned just before noon and from them it was learned that the gas came in when the well was at a depth of only about 700 feet and before the sand had been reached. The fact is an unusual one and is taken by the interested parties to mean that the well will be a permanent one.

Supt. Wells and the other practical men made preparations at once for the handling of the gas. A man was sent to Pittsburg for the cap and other necessary supplies to seal up the hole. When this has been done steps will be taken to develop the remainder of the territory. An attempt will be made to ascertain the exact amount of pressure there is in the well before it is capped.

The well is located on the Edward Hadley farm, and is thought to be a good one. The Chester Oil & Gas company was but recently organized, and is made up of Chester and East Liverpool parties. Their lease consists of about 500 acres of very promising territory. Two other wells have not yet been located by the experts, the work will be started at once. The drillers will begin the preparation for a move at once, and it is expected that the second well will be started within a few days. Meantime the stockholders in the company are considering the advisability of taking up more territory.

GOOD PROGRESS

Is Being Made By the Chester Street Department With the Street Paving.

The work of paving the principal thoroughfares in Chester is being pushed as fast as the weather and the limited force of workmen will permit. Carolina avenue is nearly completed for its entire length, and the work is well under way on Virginia avenue.

The management of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs railway has been keeping up with the city in the laying of bricks between the rails on those streets over which the tracks are laid, and at some points are entirely through with their share of the improvement.

A vast sum of money is being spent by the city in putting down the pavements, but it is calculated the residents will be amply repaid.

MCGRAW AT LARGE

A Report to That Effect Is Sent Out from New Cumberland Today.

Word was received in Chester this morning that Terry McGraw, the desperate character who gave the authorities so much trouble a few weeks ago when an attempt was made to arrest him, had been released from the New Cumberland jail. The report could not be confirmed, but much indignation was expressed that such a thing should even be hinted at.

McGraw, it will be remembered, had a fight on an excursion train en route from Pittsburg to Rock Springs, and Conductor Conley was terribly beaten. McGraw continued his carousal at the park and was arrested. Justice Pugh bound him over to court at the preliminary hearing and he has been in the New Cumberland jail ever since.

The information brought to Chester said that McGraw had raised $50 with which to secure his release, and that the bond had been lowered to accommodate his pile. The thug claimed he could beat the Chester people if the case came to trial, since the fight had occurred in Pennsylvania, and he could not be prosecuted in this state. The assault on the conductor was the only charge against McGraw, and it is supposed the New Cumberland authorities deemed it wise to take no risk so let him go.

CHESTER NOTES.

Unusual activity is noticed at the Chester freight station. Large consignments of oak lumber, sewer pipe and brick are being unloaded in the yards and the vicinity has the appearance of one of the large cities. A large amount of wool is being shipped from this point, and the loading process requires the services of many men.

S. Cooper, who has been confined to his home on Carolina avenue for some time with consumption, was somewhat improved yesterday and was able to go to the country for a short visit.

A. V. Thompson, of Pittsburg, is in Chester today on business.

R. G. Dunn is contemplating a trip to Mt. Clemens, Mich., for the benefit of his health.

Edgar Ewing was in Pittsburg yesterday on business.

The Simpson M. E. Sunday school is picnicking at Rock Springs park today. About 600 of the members are present and a pleasant time is being spent.

BURNING RUBBISH WILL BE STOPPED

The Mayor Determined to Stop the Building of Bonfires in the City.

Mayor Weaver announced this morning that he intends to rigidly enforce the ordinance regulating the burning of paper and rubbish within the limits of the city. During the past few days several complaints have been filed at central station and in two instances the violators of the ordinance have placed property in danger of destruction.

One resident reported this morning that a man living next to him had been making a practice of burning papers near his (the former's) barn. The mayor informed the complainant that he could have the violator arrested, but he did not wish to do that until the warning was given.

When the All Cubans return to the young republic after the base ball season is over they will have a great story to tell of a south paw slab artist who made them think the ball was coming over the pan when it didn't and made it come over when they thought it wouldn't. The south paw's curves also had a provoking habit of taking a drop just as the plate was reached and the Cubans' bats made temporary holes in the air.

Miller was never in better form and his pitching would have beaten most any team. With rather liberal scoring, the Cubans are credited with five hits while eleven batsmen went out on strikes. His control was excellent but two men getting free transportation to first Munoz by the "Big Four" route and Viola when Miller tickled his ribs with the sphere.

There is a hard luck story connected with the majority of these five safeties. Two of them were liners past short just close enough to Gibby's mitt to tantalize him. Tommy Davis might have knocked down another screaming grounder but he missed it by a narrow margin. Another was an attempted sacrifice that eluded both Emmerling and Miller. But on the other hand several raps that looked safe were turned into putouts. Webb dug one up out of the sand that was going past second in an awful hurry and Reark whetted up his appetite on a couple of short flies and a liner. The only wabble of the game was Tommy Davis' wild throw to first in the ninth and it cost a run.

Signor Munoz, who served the shoots and slants for the visitors, seemed to have a puzzling delivery but he was touched for nine safeties, one of them a three bagger. He relies entirely on an underhand ball and his curves have an unusually quick break. The team gave him good support, but one of the trio of errors figuring in the score.

Tommy Davis made his first appearance with the locals since he listened to the sirens song in Wellsville. He was stationed at third. Brown going to left and Wallace to first.

Bustamante and Carilla struck out for a starter and Padron did his best to follow suit, but muffed the third one. The ball struck Padron's bat and bounded far enough away to allow him to reach first. He was left on Cabrera's weakling to Miller. With two to the bad in East Liverpool's half, Brown hit safely, but it was ammunition wasted as Davis failed to connect.

There was more doing for Miller in the strike out line in the third. Magrina and Bustamante being the victims. East Liverpool gathered a cluster of runs and hits in her half. Miller singled to left and he took second while Gibson was being thrown out on his grounder to Carilla. Maley sent a high one to Carilla and Wallace was started around the circuit when Munoz hit him between the shoulders with a fast shoot. Brown made another hit and this time it was a right field shot that counted for three bases, Miller and Wallace scoring.

Miller's only bad inning was the fourth. After Carilla skied out to Reark, Padron sent a liner to left over Gibson's head and went to second when Cabrera's bunt played tag with Emmerling and Miller. Viola hit to Miller and Padron was forced at third. Pitcher Munoz then tried to win his own game with a pretty hit to center. The ball bounded over Reark's shoulder and Munoz went to second while Cabrera and Viola counted.

For the third time, Bustamante went out on strikes in the fifth. Rosado and Magrina, who had preceded him at the bat, had gone out in the same way. Maley and Wallace rapped out safeties in East Liverpool's half, but they perished on the bases.

Tommy Davis made the circuit in the sixth. He landed at first on Cabrera's error and Webb sacrificed him to second. Reark singled and Emmerling sacrificed. Miller sent a hot one through the infield to center and Davis scored. Reark also tried to reach home on the hit but Viola nailed him at the plate with a fine throw.

With one out in the ninth, Viola grounded to Davis. The chilly wind had taken a few kinks in Tommy's throwing arm and he made a weird throw to first. Viola going around to third, counting on Munoz' out to Webb. Molina fanned and East Liverpool's losing streak was broken. Score:

SPORTING MISCELLANY.
The American league drew 581 spectators in Washington Monday and 842 in New York. This does not pay salaries.

Manager McAleer fined Pitcher Frank Donahue $100 for drinking four glasses of beer. He may lose his high-priced twirler.

Frank Bowerman, the highest-priced man now standing behind the rubber, was a pupil of "Buck" Ewing, of Cincinnati, and says Ewing taught him what he knows about base ball.

Frank Bowerman, of the New York team, has been fined $100 for his assault on Manager Fred Clarke, of the Pittsburghs, in the office at the Polo grounds, New York city, about three weeks ago.

"Jim" Keenan, of Cincinnati, once a famous catcher, who was with the Pittsburgh team in the early eighties, never misses a game. He likes the sport so well that he paid $20 to see a recent contest.

Of the pitchers in the American league who have won half of their games for the season, Cy Young and Bill Dineen, both of the Beaneaters, are in the lead. Patterson, of Chicago, follows, and Bernhard, of Cleveland, is next. Waddell has lost some of his prestige. Kennedy and Wilhelm, of Pittsburgh, lead the National league, with Mathewson, of New York, close to the top. Leever, of Pittsburgh, leads in shutout games.

Clarence Beaumont, the star outfielder of the Pittsburgh team, and a champion batsman and bunt hitter, is the first of any of the big league players who has reached the century mark in base hits for the present season. Hans Wagner is a close second. In 1902 Willie Keeler reached the century mark by July 15, but Beaumont, by his performance, has beaten him out several days. Keeler, the mighty, is way down the line this year, with 67 base hits.

Kentucky Republican Convention.
Louisville, July 16.—Spectacular in the extreme was the opening session of the Kentucky Republican state convention at the auditorium and the situation is full of possibilities for more interesting events. The two salient features of the afternoon session were, first, an endorsement of President Roosevelt's candidacy in 1904; second, almost a stampede to former Governor William O. Bradley, who is not an announced candidate for governor. The endorsement of President Roosevelt's candidacy in 1904 upset the calculations of several shrewd leaders who, it is charged, were figuring on ignoring that point. There are three candidates for governor—Colonel Morris B. Belknap, a Louisville merchant; Hon. Augustus F. Willson, a Louisville attorney, and State's Attorney General Clifton J. Pratt, the only man on the Taylor ticket in 1899 to secure his office after a bitter legal contest.

TRUE PREVENTIVE OF HAY FEVER

Hyomei Destroys Germs of the Disease And Keeps People Well.

There can be little or no doubt as to hay fever being a germ disease. It is, too, one disease where prevention is much easier than cure.

All who are subject to this disagreeable trouble, should use Hyomei daily for at least two or three weeks before the time of their annual attack. In this way the annoying paroxysms of sneezing, running at the nose and watery and smarting eyes can be avoided.

This remarkable discovery makes it possible for anyone to breathe air at home which is almost identical with that of the Adirondacks or White Mountains or other resorts where hay fever sufferers go to escape their trouble.

If, however, Hyomei has not been used until the disease has begun, it is necessary to use it more frequently, at least half a dozen times daily, and Hyomei Balm should be rubbed into the nostrils both morning and night. This treatment will relieve at once and will effect a cure in nearly every case.

Will Reed has a complete line of the Hyomei goods and will sell an outfit of inhaler, Hyomei and medicine dropper for $1 and will also agree to refund the money if the treatment does not give satisfaction.

Do not try to cure hay fever by dosing the stomach. Breathe Hyomei and in that way the medication will reach the minutest air cells in the nose, throat and lungs soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane, and prevent and cure all hay fever troubles.

Arranging for 1,000-Mile Run.
Kingston, N. Y., July 16.—Harry Unwin, secretary of the national association of Automobile Manufacturers of America, and O. H. Martin, of New York, are here arranging for the first annual 1,000-mile run of the association in October from New York to Cleveland. Not more than three cars of each make can be entered. More than 100 cars will take part in the run. The route will be along the east bank of the Hudson river to Rhine cliff, thence through Kingston, over the Catskill mountains and west along the route of the proposed national highway.

Jury Wastes No Time.
St. Louis, July 16.—The jury in the case of Julius Lehmann, former member of the house of delegates, charged with bribery in connection with the passage of the city lighting bill, found the defendant guilty. His punishment was fixed at seven years in the penitentiary, the longest term yet inflicted in any of the boodle cases. The sentence is also the maximum punishment under the law for the crime of which he was convicted. It took the jury just seven minutes to reach its verdict.

Assist English Glassworkers.
Cincinnati, July 16.—The national convention of flint glass blowers spent the day in hearing reports of committees on price lists and in attending to various other matters of a routine nature. An appropriation of $3,000 was made to assist the English glassworkers who have been locked out for many weeks.

SENATOR ALGER INTERVIEWED

Replies to Editorial Charging That Government Was Defrauded on Army Contracts.

Detroit, July 16.—United States Senator R. A. Alger gave out the following interview in regard to an editorial published in the current issue of Harper's Weekly, charging practically that during the time Mr. Alger was secretary of war the government was defrauded out of millions of dollars on army contracts.

"If there was any corruption in the war department during the time when I was secretary, or if there was any reason for thinking there might be such corruption, I knew nothing of it, and I do not believe there was any such corruption.

"The assertion made here is a very broad one, and the men who make these charges and the paper which publishes them will be held to the strictest accountability.

"I hope that the matter will be investigated to the very bottom in order that the facts may be fully demonstrated.

"I did not even know that any glove contract had been made. Matters of detail of that kind were left to subordinate officials, and I suppose that many minor contracts were made without being submitted to the head of the department during the time when the army was being mobilized and when there was a great mass of business to be attended to.

"However, I believe that the men who purchased the supplies during my administration were as honest, conscientious and efficient as any set of officials who ever served in the war department."

ABSOLUTE CURE FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

No Matter How Long You Have Had IT NAU'S DYSPEPSIA CURE—IT CURES THE CAUSE.

"For 20 years, until within the last 15 months I have been greatly troubled with indigestion and have used a great many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About the 15th of June, 1900, I commenced using Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, and am pleased to say that I consider myself entirely cured of all stomach troubles. I have delayed expressing to you my opinion of your valuable remedy until such a time has elapsed as to convince me of my entire recovery. At the time I began to use Nau's condition and my friends had almost given up hope of my recovery, and I am satisfied in my opinion that had it not been for Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, I would not be alive to write this letter." CONDITION IS GRAVE

POPE LEO DYING OF OLD AGE

Science Can Only Assist in Prolonging Precious Existence—Motor Force No Longer Sufficient—Patient Assisted With Stimulants.

London, July 16.—A dispatch from Rome, timed 6:50 a. m., says the pope passed a very restless night and his condition this morning is considerably worse.

Rome, July 16.—3:05 a. m.—The beginning of the second part of the night was somewhat restless and Dr. Laponi tried to assist the patient with stimulants and nourishment.

Rome, July 16.—Dr. Mazzoni, in reply to the question, "Can the pope recover?" gave the Associated Press correspondent the following signed statement:

"Rome, via Condotti, 9, July 15.—At the present moment the disease of his holiness has lost its character of absolute gravity which it had at its acute period. It might be considered to have entered the period of possible solution. This might occur in a man of strong fiber and young, but it is impossible to entertain such a hope in the case of a man in his 94th year.

With him the physical energy also indispensable for recovery is lacking. Pope Leo's organism is perfect and as such maintains itself after 93 years of never interrupted work, but his motor force is no longer sufficient for the complex functions essential to life. In other words, the 93 years of Pope Leo brings him into that category of extraordinary longevity when life is destined to flicker out independent of the action of any pathological complication. The only service that science and affection can render is that of struggling to have this precious existence preserved to us as long as possible.

"GAETANI MAZZONI." Ravages Wrought by Disease. One of the doctors in attendance on the pontiff gave the Associated Press correspondent a graphic but horrible word picture of Pope Leo as he appears today. That smile which lighted up the pontiff's face, even in extreme age, has disappeared, probably forever. The skin is drawn tightly over the bony framework of his face, leaving the once bright eyes staring dimly from the deeply sunken sockets. A grayish pallor overspreads his countenance, but the most noticeable ravage wrought by his present disease is the drooping of the lower jaw, which has made the pope's features take on the fixed rigidity of death.

Throughout the day the precincts of the vatican were comparatively quiet, and the immediate vicinity of the sick room showed none of the evidences of agitation and alarm so apparent Tuesday. In marked contrast to previous days the patient was kept in almost absolute seclusion, only one person besides the physicians in immediate attendance gaining admission. This one was Monsignor Pifferi, the pope's confessor. Others came to the ante-chamber, including Cardinals Satolli and Serafino Vannutelli, but they did not press for admission to the sick room, being aware of the doctors' earnest wish to afford the august patient every opportunity of avoiding exertion and mental effort.

During the day the pope took a slight amount of nourishment. Through the morning he was quite restless, shifting uneasily on his bed and complaining of being unable to secure an easy position. Later he became drowsy and during the afternoon had some sleep. The assembling of the doctors at 5:30 o'clock, two hours before the usual time, was not due to any alarming turn in the pope's condition, but through the wish thoroughly to go over every detail of the situation.

His Holiness Still Hopeful.

The moderate tone of the bulletin which followed the visit gave an assurance that the patient's condition was practically unchanged, while the expression that the depression of his strength had not increased afforded a slight note of relief. In the evening his holiness complained of a slight uneasiness in the chest, but that he has not yet completely given up hope was indicated by his remark that he expected the oppression of his chest to pass off in a few days. During the day the pope drank a few drops of the healing waters from the shrine of Lourdes, several bottles of which were sent to the vatican by the French bishop in whose see Lourdes is situated.

A local paper gravely announces that from the moment Pope Leo swallowed the water an improvement in his condition became apparent.

Strenuous Life of Physicians.

The doctors are well again exhausted with their unceasing cares. Dr. Laponi in particular spends his entire nights as well as days in the sick room. Last before midnight his wife

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Will Often Help You Greatly—Read What An East Liverpool Citizen Says.

You may hesitate to listen to the advice of strangers, but the testimony of residents of East Liverpool is worth your most careful attention. It is an easy matter to investigate such proof as this. The evidence must be conclusive. Read the following:

Mr. W. P. Cochran, of Mulberry street, East End, says: "At intervals for 30 years I had serious kidney and bladder trouble. The agony I went through can hardly be described. Many nights I rolled from one side to another trying to find an easy position for my back; I could not move without having sharp twinges of pain and I was also troubled with urinary difficulty, the secretions being very irregular, and at times very distressing. I ran down so that I could hardly help myself. Doctors treated me. I took a power of stuff and had given up all hope when I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised as a never failing remedy. I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy and after taking half of it I could see some improvement. I continued, and the treatment did me more good than anything I ever used."

wishing to see him, went to the vatican. She was taken to a corridor near the sick room, where she saw her husband for a few minutes. An important case now before the British consular court in Rome requires the presence of Dr. Laponi, but this is impossible because of the pope's condition and also because the vatican affords extra territorial privileges to all within its precincts.

The total number of dispatches inquiring about the pope's health received at the vatican during the day reached 26,000, including some lengthy cables from half round the world.

The total cost of these telegrams is estimated at $36,000. This enormous deluge taxes to the utmost the resources of the vatican administration. A large force of priests and seminarians is temporarily aiding the officials in making responses, which bear the signature of Cardinal Rampolla.

American Ideas to Play Leading Part.

Paris, July 16.—A dispatch from Rome is published here giving an interview with a Monsignor who is a friend of the United States. He said that if a number of cardinals favorable to Cardinal Gibbons had not died lately the American cardinal would have had a good chance of being elected. He will have a great influence at the conclave and the authority which Cardinal Gibbons will exercise will probably pave the way to a more just representation of the United States on the sacred college, which will bear fruit at the next conclave.

Even now, asserted the Monsignor, the Catholics of the republic of the United States will not permit a monarchical nation to intervene with her veto. American ideas will play a leading part from the very beginning at the coming conclave and it is sure that these ideas will have a most powerful influence on the future destinies of the church of Rome.

DETAILS WILL BE SUPPRESSED

Publication of Suicide Stories Believed to Influence Others in Taking Their Own Lives.

Cleveland, July 16.—Coroner Burke says he will make an attempt to suppress details in the cases of all suicides.

"The publication of suicide stories under glaring headlines, giving every detail of the crime," said the coroner, "is most harmful to the public at large and is the direct cause of so many suicides. I have noticed that when a suicide by carbolic acid is printed a number of suicides immediately follow, all taking their lives in the same manner. The same may be said of a suicide by shooting or any other ways that are more commonly employed.

The minds of a great many people are very easily influenced and the reports published by the newspapers setting forth the whole life of the suicide so works upon the minds of some people that for mere notoriety they take their own life. This may in a measure account for the large number of suicides for which no reason for the act can be learned."

Coroner Burke said he would confer with the managing editors of the local press and ask their co-operation in his efforts to carry out his idea.

Knapp's Fate in Jury's Hands.

Hamilton, O., July 16.—The Alfred A. Knapp wife murder case is in the hands of the jury. Lawyer Thomas Darby made his closing argument, pleading that Knapp was insane and not responsible. Prosecutor Warren Gard asked the jury for a conviction of murder in the first degree. At the close of the arguments Judge Holden charged the jury, which then retired.

Carpenters Order Twelve Strikes.

Indianapolis, July 16.—There were twelve strikes ordered by the national executive committee of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. The financial report showed that during the past quarter $11,569 was expended in support of strikes and $125,864 was taken from the disability fund for the benefit of unfortunate members.

RACING AT OYSTER BAY

President and Mrs. Roosevelt Guests of Enlisted Men—Chief Executive Delivers Brief Speech, Which Is Received With Enthusiasm.

Oyster Bay, July 16.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt, together with Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw and a large party of relatives and friends, were enthusiastically interested witnesses of a boat race on Oyster bay. The contestants were four crews of three men each selected from the enlisted men of the naval yacht Sylph. All were trained oarsmen, and spurred by the knowledge that the eyes of the president were upon them every one of the 12 brawny sailormen worked in the race as if his life depended upon his efforts.

The race was the idea of the Roosevelt children. It appealed strongly to the president. Through Lieutenant Preston, commander of the Sylph, the arrangements were perfected. The enlisted men on the Sylph and the children whose race it was to be entered with enthusiasm into all the details.

As the Sylph has no boats suitable for racing, the children tendered the sailors the use of their boats, four beautiful, pair-oared cedar skiffs.

The president added a substantial zest to the contest by offering a prize of $35, $25 of which should go to the winning crew and $10 to the second crew.

Race Was Interesting.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the president and Mrs. Roosevelt and Secretary Shaw, accompanied by 17 Roosevelt children, including the president's six children, embarked in launches and were taken to the Sylph. Scarcely had the party boarded the yacht when the contesting crews tumbled into their boats. A launch, commanded by Ensign Hamilton, in which were Miss Alice Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and his cousin, George Roosevelt, towed the boats to the starting point, a mile and a quarter due southeast of the Sylph. It was an ideal afternoon, cool and bracing, but as the wind was about nine knots the bay was a bit rough for fancy rowing.

At the crack of a pistol fired by Theodore the oars struck the water as one and the boats were off. For a hundred yards it was a pretty even race, but No. 1 gradually drew ahead and never afterward was in danger.

President Roosevelt greeted the members of the crew cordially as they went aboard the Sylph, shaking hands and saying a kindly word to each one. Then he presented the prizes to the coxswains of the winning and second crews. Soon afterward the president and his party left the Sylph for Sagamore hill.

Dined With Enlisted Men.

The president and Mrs. Roosevelt dined on board the Sylph as the guests of the enlisted men. The invitation to the dinner was extended to them through the vessel's commander, Lieutenant Preston, and was accepted gladly both by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt. At the conclusion of the dinner, which was served in the forecastle, the president delivered a brief talk to the men.

He desired them to realize fully, he said, that as Theodore Roosevelt and as president of the United States he had a warm personal interest in them.

Here is another recovery in a case incurable till the advent of the Fulton Compound, reported by John & James, the agents of the Fulton Compound in Los Gatos:

W. H. Findley, a resident of Los Gatos, having chronic kidney disease (Bright's disease) had, like everybody else, found all treatment futile. He commenced on Fulton's Renal Compound in February, 1902, and on December 10 of the same year reported the total disappearance of the disease. He writes that he has gained fifteen pounds in weight and is again able to do a good hard day's work. John & James, the Los Gatos druggists, confirm this recovery and know of several other recoveries in similar cases of chronic kidney disease in Los Gatos, all of which were incurable by anything else known to druggists. and in all the enlisted men in the navy. The welfare of the enlisted men in both the navy and army was one of the safeguards of the country. He urged them to be efficient and faithful to the performance of their duties and zealous in their work of preparation for a time, which might come almost unexpectedly, when their services would mean the life of the nation. In that supreme moment when all were thoroughly prepared—when by faithful attention to duty in hours of peace the work of war had been discounted—he had no fear that the navy of the United States would not add new luster to the American flag.

Referring to the contest of the afternoon the president declared it was a great sport, in which the men had entered with so generous and enthusiastic a spirit that he was assured they would manifest the same sort of spirit if the hour should come to try their patriotism and their fealty to the American flag.

The president's little address was received with tremendous enthusiasm and he was cheered again and again, much to the delight of himself and Mrs. Roosevelt.

DEMURRERS

COURT DECIDES A NUMBER OF KNOTTY PROBLEMS.

Sister Charges Her Brother With Fraud in Settling Their Mother's Estate.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—In common pleas court yesterday afternoon Judge Hole passed upon a few more demurrers.

In the case of Florence Cumberland, of Hanover township, versus William C. Wright, of Toledo, and the American Surety company, of New York, a demurrer holding that the facts set forth were not sufficient cause of action against the surety company was sustained. This is a suit brought by Mrs. Cumberland, as a legatee of the estate of her mother, Mary A. Creighton, against her brother, William C. Wright, individually and as administrator of their mother's estate. The plaintiff alleges her brother induced her to sign a receipt for $180.53 as her share in her mother's estate and afterwards paid her only $35. By further fraud and deceit he is alleged to have had his final accounting approved in probate court and to have secured his release as administrator, at the same time by false representation preventing the filing of bill of exceptions by his sister until the expiration of the statutory limit. The surety company was made a defendant on the ground that the condition of the bond had been broken. The court held that there is sufficient cause for action against Wright.

A decree for the defendant was entered in the case of Elihu Simpson, of Salineville, versus Duffield Simpson et al., which was submitted to the court some time ago. In this case the plaintiff sued for the partition of a house and lot in Salineville, and the defendant set up that they were the owners of the entire house and lot by virtue of a deed from the mother of the plaintiff, to whom the will of her husband gave the property for life, with the right to dispose of it if necessary for her support.

In the partition case of Norman M. May versus Benjamin Trimble et al., of Salem, a demurrer to the answer was overruled, but Judge Hole held that this does not dispose of the merits of the action and reserved the right to determine the real question between the parties if the case is tried before him.

In the case of George Rice versus F. J. Neigh et al., J. M. Dickinson as assignee is substituted as plaintiff. Likewise in the case of George Rice versus Henry Rice and others.

In the case of Eden Reeder versus Peter Woodward et al., leave is given to answer by August 1.

Lisbon, July 16.—(Special)—Court adjourned last evening until next Monday, when Judge Ambler, of Canton, will occupy the bench. The jury has been ordered to report Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Judge Hole will preside for the final assignments arranged for a week from next Monday.

"NO CLOTHING FITS LIKE OURS"

THE BOSTON STORE

Great Anniversary and Mid-Summer Clearance Sale Of Dry Goods

Fifteen years ago this business was started in a small way, but on such sound business principals as insured success from the beginning. Good merchandise at reasonable prices, courteous treatment of customers, fair and square dealings, have increased the business steadily year by year, until it has reached its present proportions and still keeps on rapidly growing. The success of the past, is a strong incentive for redoubled efforts in the future and our constant aim will ever be toward betterment of service in catering to the wants of our patrons. The season of the year has arrived when it is necessary to make a clean sweep of all surplus and distinctively Summer Goods, so we will celebrate our Fifteenth Anniversary by inaugurating a Mid-Summer Clearance Sale, that will outdo, from a bargain getting standpoint, all previous records—our Mill Remnant Sale of a year ago—which was a record breaker—not excepted. This is a strong statement, but come and let us prove it to your satisfaction. The Bargains will extend to every one of the 25 departments in the store. Extra clerks so everybody can get waited on promptly.
